Brass Views Vary

4-Star Generals Differ On War Possibility

New York (AP)—Two 4-star generals differed Thursday on the possibility of a general atomic war.

Air Force Gen. Curtis E. LeMay said the general war threat is increasing with every passing day. He said this was simply because the Soviet Union believes in aggression and is achieving a general war capability for the first time.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff, said that because of the nuclear strength of both sides it was unlikely either side would voluntarily start a general war.

The 2 generals and Adm. H. D. Felt addressed the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. on national defense problems.

Felt took the view that "the possibility of all-out war, the probability of limited war and the certainty of cold war are the manifestations of communism in 1958."

Bryan Elected

D. Tennant Bryan of the Richmond, Va., Times-Dispatch and News Leader, was elected president of the ANPA, succeeding William Dwight of the Holyoke, Mass., Transcript-Telegram.

Mark Ferree of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, New York, was elected vice president, and J. Hale Steinman of the Lancaster, Pa., Intelligencer-Journal and New Era, treasurer. Walter J. Blackburn of the London, Ontario, Free Press, was re-elected secretary.

Taylor referred to "mutual difference"—a situation with both sides having atomic parity and the power to destroy each other.

"Under such conditions," he said, "we are probably justified in assuming that neither side would voluntarily start a general atomic war."

A Myth

LeMay said the Air Force believed in deterrence but that mutual deterrence was a myth. He said the Communist bloc "will aggress whenever and wherever the opportunity looks profitable."

LeMay said the United States did not aggress while possessing a nuclear monopoly or clear superiority, but that the Communists "are under no such moral restraint should they achieve superiority."

"As to deterrance," said LeMay, "there is no more transitory state in world affairs than that of stalemate. The human impulse is for change and improvements. Stalemate is a natural enemy of progress, even progress in warfare. Our probable enemy is a believer in progress—in fact he is a demonstrated success at it."

CHERYL CONCEALS EMOTIONS

Grandmother Gets Custody Of Cheryl

...New Decision In 2 Months

Santa Monica, Calif. (AP)—Lana Turner Thursday lost custody of her daughter Cheryl Crane, 14, who told police she stabbed her mother's lover.

Juvenile Court placed Cheryl in the custody of Lana's mother for a 2-month period after which the girl's permanent custody will be decided.

The decision cleared Cheryl of murder charges in the fatal knifing of Johnny Stompanato last April 4. Charges of lack of proper parental control and supervision remain to be decided at another hearing June 26.

"I'm very happy," Miss Turner declared at the close of the Juvenile Court hearing. "This is the decision I have been hoping and praying for."

Superior Judge AULLEN Lynch made the decision after an hour and a half of testimony in a closed courtroom. The actress' attorney, Jerry Giesler, said the two-month period was a "technicality to see how she adjusts."

Miss Turner and the girl's father, Stephen Crane, will have reasonable visitation rights during the time Cheryl stays with her grandmother, Mrs. Mildred Turner.

'Very Happy'

Mrs. Turner's reaction: "Naturally I'm very happy."

Tiesler said that the girl would remain a ward of the court until after the 2 months. He said Miss Turner would seek full custody of her daughter then. He added that he expected no charges to be pressed against Cheryl.

Crane, who also attended the hearing, was silent about the decision. But his attorney, Arthur J. Crowley, commented: "It's a great relief to both parents to have their daighter out of Juvenile Hall."

Slice In Aid OK'd

House Committee Votes Cut In Assistance

Washington (AP) — The House Foreign Affairs Committee Thursday approved 18-5 a foreign aid bill cut 339 million dollars below President Eisenhower's $3,942,000,000 request.

The action clears the way for House floor action expected the week after next. Chairman Morgan (D-Pa) said the outlook for the program is better than it was in January. But he said he won't predict the House won't cut it more.

The committee put the finishing touches on the measure in closed session. Proposals to slash more money were defeated. Several secondary changes were adopted.

New Help

As approved by the committee, the bill would authorize $2,958,900,000 in new foreign aid for the year starting July 1. Another $644,192,500 is already authorized under existing law — mainly 625 millions for easy-term economic loans—bringing the total allowed by the committee to $3,603,082,500.

A separate appropriations bill containing the actual funds will be considered later. Eisenhower said the full amount was needed to help free world security by economic and military help to America's friends around the world.

TAX FILING DELAYED BY CRASH

A "survivor" of the airplane crash near Las Vegas, Nev., Monday which killed 49 persons reached the office of Lancaster Co. Assessor Arthur Davis Thursday.

Davis received a charred letter from M. Clark King of Santa Ana, Calif., which had been salvaged from the wreckage of the United Air Lines plane which was in collision with an Air Force jet fighter. All 47 persons aboard the airliner and the 2 in the jet were killed.

The letter to Davis, which had been forwarded by postal authorities, contained King's Lancaster County personal property tax schedule. Although the schedule was due Apr. 20, Davis said he believed an airplane crash was a good enough reason not to impose any tax penalty for the late return.

Oldfield Winnings To Start Fund For NU Scholarship

Los Angeles, Calif. (AP) — Some quiz program prize money is going to find its way toward a scholarship fund at the University of Nebraska.

USAF Col. Barney Oldfield, former Nebraska newspaperman, said prize money received on Groucho Marx' TV show, "You Bet Your Life," will be used to start a fund for a scholarship.

Oldfield, now director of information services for the North American Air Defense Command at Colorado Springs, Colo., teamed with a Hollywood housewife, Mrs. Jane Hoenicke, on the quiz show. The pair won $3,100.

Asked what he was going to do with his share of the money, Oldfield replied:

"I have a very nice mother and father-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Kinman in Grand Island, Neb., and a very nice mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Oldfield in Lincoln, Neb., so I think I'll use the money to start a fund which will eventually become a scholarship in their names at the University of Nebraska."

Oldfield breezed through one category, "world capials." He had lived and worked in 32 countries.

In Lincoln, Oldfield's mother, who had been forwarned and was watching the show, said it was "very nice." She thought the scholarship idea was "wonderful." "The campus always seemed like home to us," she explained. "We're very flattered."

Oldfield at one time was amusements editor of the Sunday Journal and Star.

Bailey Sanatorium Purchased By Nuns For Use As Home For Aged

By Nancy Benjamin

The Benjamin F. Bailey Sanatorium, 55th and South, in operation since 1901, has been sold to the Benedictine Sisters of Sacred Heart Convent, Yankton, S.D., for use as a home for the aged.

Dr. Flanagan

The 25-acre site including a main hospital building and a rest cottage was purchased for $250,000 from Dr. May L. Flanagan, operator and owner. Bailey's will close its present operations as a hospital and mental sanatorium by July 1.

The Catholic order of sisters plans to re-open the facilities, after some remodeling, as a non-denominational home for ambulatory patients over 65 by June, 1959.

Since Beginning

Dr. Flanagan, who has been at Bailey's since its opening announced plans to retire in Lincoln. The 115 patients now housed at the southeast Lincoln institution will be required to find other housing by July.

The present staff of about 60 will be replaced by Benedictine sisters, trained at the Yankton, S.D., convent, according to Mother Jerome, prioress. Some Lincoln staff may be hired, she said.

The home for the aged will be called Madonna Home, and will accommodate approximately 125 persons. Mother Jerome estimated that the staff would consist of 6 to 8 nuns.

The Catholic sisters plan to open Madonna Home by June, 1959, but some nuns will reside there after July of this year to attend University of Nebraska summer classes.

Renovation Planned

Renovation will begin about Aug. 1, and a small number of Benedictine sisters will reside at the home to supervise the work. A chapel will be installed and surgical rooms, not to be used at the Madonna home, will be remodeled.

Applications for admission will be accepted after Mar. 1, 1959, and the first guests will come in June.

Plans are to convert the main building, built in 1896 as a girls dormitory for Normal University, into a women's residence building.

The present rest cottage for mental patients, built in 1906, will be used for housing men. Other buildings on the 8-block site are a power plant and chimney, a laundry, the owner's residence and a barnshed.

Addition In 1924

The main building also includes a newer addition built in 1924 which houses surgical rooms and a dining hall and modern kitchen facilities.

The Benedictine sisters have no immediate plans for changing the exteriors of the Lincoln landmark, popularly known as "Green Gables" because of the many attic dormer projections of the red brick structures.

More than $35,000 was spent on the older buildings in 1950 to improve the interiors, to fireproof, and install sprinkler systems.

Benedictine sisters also operate Holy Family and St. Patrick's Elementary Schools in Lincoln. The order operates another home for the aged in Pierre, S. D.

Only Private Institution

Dr. Flanagan, pointing out that Bailey's is the only private institution with surgical and mental patient facilities in the state, said that present patients will probably have to be transferred to state institutions, to smaller nursing homes or to facilities in other states.

She pointed out that during its 58-year history, Bailey's has housed patients from nearly every state in the union. The hospital once contained a nurses' training school and a maternity ward.

The Most Rev. James V. Casey, Bishop of Lincoln, expressed his pleasure at the purchase of Bailey's by the Yankton Benedictine nuns and called it one of the most important events occurring since he assumed his post.

Negotiations for the building began last December and were concluded with signing of the contracts Apr. 18.

Father Of Girl, Woman Quizzed In Abortion Case

Hospitalized Girl Said Satisfactory, Placed Under Court Supervision

Police early Friday morning were questioning two persons in the case of a reported unlawful abortion.

Officers identified the two as the father of the 15-year-old girl involved and a woman. The two were held overnight at city jail.

Meanwhile the girl was reported in satisfactory condition at a local hospital.

Police are investigating the unmarried girl's story as to the circumstances of the abortion and also as to who was responsible for her pregnancy.

District Judge John Polk Thursday signed an order placing the girl under the supervision of the County Juvenile Court, over which he presides. A complaint filed by county authorities in District Court alleges the "child lacks proper parental care by reason of the fault or habits of the parents."

The girl only recently celebrated her 15th birthday. She reported she had undergone numerous abortion attempts since the middle of March.

She named 4 persons as being involved in the abortion attempts and said they took place at 2 private residences. The girl, wha reportedly had been pregnant about 3 months, was hospitalized Wednesday and had a miscarriage a few hours after being admitted to the hospital.

Penalties provided by state statutes in unlawful abortion cases range up to 10 years imprisonment.

NU Publication Selected For World's Fair Exhibition

Prairie Schooner, the University of Nebraska's literary quarterly, has been selected for exhibition at the U.S. pavilion at the World Fair in Brussels, it was announced Friday by the department of English.

One hundred copies of the publication, 50 of the spring 1958 issue and 50 of the summer 1958 issue, will go on display as part of the literary magazines' exhibit for the duration of the fair through Oct. 19.

Also the department announced that four individual stories, which have appeared in Prairie Schooner during the last year, have recently received national recognition.

The short story, "Mr. Pruitt," a mystery by Ralph Robin, an English instructor at American University in Washington, D. C., has been selected for Margaret Foley's "Best Short Stories of 1957."

The story appeared in the summer 1957 issue.

Three stories have been chosen for publication in Best Articles and Stories, a new magazine devoted to reprinting outstanding works which have appeared in the various literary publications throughout the country.

Those from Prairie Schooner accepted for future publication are:

"Decisions" by Daniel Bernd, an instructor in the department of English who won the Prairie Schooner Fiction Award in 1957 as a University student, appearing in the winter 1957 issue.

"The Shoes" by John A. Lynch of South Ben., Ind., as a University editor, appearing in the fall, 1957 issue.

"Bakshees for Beji" by D. S. Edwards of Berkeley, Calif., appearing in the spring 1958 issue.

Karl Shapiro, professor of English, is editor of the Prairie Schooner which is published jointly by the department of English and the University Press.

Dole Claim Made

Jobless Benefits Measure Is Held Up

Washington (AP)—A Democratic bill to issue federal grants for unemployment benefits struck a snag Thursday.

Its backers had hoped for quick clearance from the House Rules Committee so it could be called up for House action Monday or Tuesday. However, Rules Chairman Smith (D-Va) called for further testimony Monday, making the date for House action uncertain.

Smith, with bipartisan backing, called the Democratic plan of outright grants a dole, and said:

"In my 28 years of experience here in Congress—and I went through all the New Deal—this country has never been willing until today to come to an outright dole."

Rep. Madden (D-Ind), on the other hand, had this advice for Smith and the others:

"Must Provide Food"

"Don't fly into holy horror now because the government must provide food to people who need food."

In another economic development Veterans Administrator Sumner G. Whittier forecast that April might bring an increase of 163% in proposed GI loan home construction as compared with March.

Whittier said applications have increased because of easier credit, removal of the down payment requirement on GI homes, and new appeal of GI loans to investors because the interest rate has gone from 4¼ to 4¾ per cent.

Earlier Thursday Vice President Nixon and the American Retail Federation agreed that America will come out of the recession stronger than ever.

Nixon gave his estimate to a Washington convention of newspaper and magazine distribution executives, saying:

Not Going To Dogs

"The United States is not decaying. We are not going to the dogs as some are suggesting."

In other economic comment and action:

1. General Motors and Ford announced their support for a bill that would require tagging of new automobiles with the manufacturer's suggested retail delivered price.
Chrysler earlier said it would go along. The plan is aimed primarily at price packing.
2. Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) introduced a rivers and harbors bill, trimmed to meet Eisenhower's objections to the 1½ billion dollar measure Eisenhower vetoed April 15.
3. A Harvard economist, Seymour E. Harris, told the Senate Finance Committee that Congress ought to cut taxes 3 billion dollars a year and increase federal spending by 4 billion.
4. Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) proposed that the government, car makers and the United Auto Workers Union get together to make a $220 reduction in the price of popular-priced cars.

U.S. Satellite Firing Snags

Cape Canaveral, Fla. (Friday) (AP)—The Navy postponed an attempted launching of a Vanguard rocket with a 20-inch satellite in its nose early Friday.

The Navy scrubbed its launching attempt about 1:02 a.m. (EST) after long hours of trying.

During the preliminary countdown the attempt 3 times approached within 7 minutes of launching, once within 5 and once within 3 minutes, only to stop.

The reasons for the postponements were not made known.

The Navy did not immediately announce when it would resume a launching attempt.

Salt-Wahoo 'New Hope' Is Reported

. . . New, 'Clean' Bill Sought

By Nancy Benjamin

Salt-Wahoo Watershed Assn. members were told Thursday that "there is new hope that we may get federal funds for the Salt Creek project yet this year."

Assn. Secretary Robert Crosby reviewed present situation of the Rivers and Harbors Bill which includes Salt-Wahoo flood control project fund authorization, commenting that he was "personally hopeful that a Presidential message to the Congress" would mean passage of a "clean bill" of only approved projects. He stressed that the Salt-Wahoo $13.4 million project was fully approved and would be included in any clean bill.

President Eisenhower vetoed the 1.5 billion dollar rivers and harbors bill Apr. 15 because he objected to 28 of the 150 projects.

Crosby added that Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) and Rep. McGregor (R-O) are preparing a "clean bill" with the unapproved projects excluded to submit to Congress later this spring.

State Jobs Included

An Associated Press report from Washington confirmed that all 3 Nebraska projects —Salt Creek, Shell Creek, and the Gering and Mitchell Valleys flood control plans—and $400 million for the Missouri Basin plan are included in the water projects bill to be offered by Sen. Knowland.

The AP report said Knowland's trimmed version was objected to "vigorously" by Senate Democratic leader, Sen. Johnson (D-Tex).

Crosby told the members attending Thursday's 8th annual meeting of the watershed association that State Sen. Otto Liebers, association president, Director Earl Luff of Lincoln, and Crosby himself, would be in Washington, D.C., next week "and hope to do some educational work on this and other matters."

Re-Elected

Re-elected to 5-year terms at the session were the following directors: Earl Luff and George A. Knight, both of Lincoln, directors-at-large; Kenneth Harris of Ashland, Lower Wahoo; Ezra Neben of Murdock, Callahan Creek, and Ralph Harlan of Hickman, Eastern Upper Salt Creek.

At a directors' meeting following the general session, Salt-Wahoo Watershed officers were also re-elected, including: Sen. Liebers, chairman; Ralph Harlan, vice chairman; Byron Dunn of Lincoln, treasurer, and Crosby, secretary and counsel.

Also voted was a resolution directing association officers to confer with Salt-Wahoo boards of supervisors and officials of the soil conservation district to select new project sites for approval.

Vice Chairman Harlan, who offered the resolution, commented that advance planning was necessary because of the length of time required in getting federal approval and funds. He suggested that the Haines Branch and Middle Creek areas were both possible selections.

Progress Cited

The group heard reports on the Oak Creek project started 2 years ago as "progressing well" and a tremendous incentive for land improvement and soil conservation. The project, which will include 20 structures when finished, now has one dam completed, 2 in construction and 2 or 3 others in the planning stage.

In pilot projects in Swedeburg and Upper Salt, the members were told "this association can claim more credit for progress than any other group in the country," by Crosby.

The association also voted to hold a special future meeting with State Game Commissioner Mel Steen and other groups interested in future recreation development in the Salt-Wahoo projects areas.

Director Jack Hart told the group that the 12-county Blue Valley area recently approved plans to request Gov. Anderson, by petition, to set up a watershed planning board in the area, which would be the first in the state.

Membership of the Salt-Wahoo association was reported at about 600.

Visitors Line Up For 'Airhouse'

Some of the visitors attending the University of Nebraska Engineers' open house wait patiently for entrance into the Airhouse, a portable rubber storage building. The Airhouse, which is erected by blowing air inside and anchored by water, was part of the Architectural Department's display at the exhibit.

NU E-Week Feats Range From 'Radio Cooking' To TV

By Lennart Colson

University of Nebraska engineering students did everything but launch a Vanguard Rocket at their 46th annual open house Thursday.

More than 9,000 people filed past student displays of 8 departments of the College of Engineering and Architecture. Most of the early visitors were high school students who had come by chartered bus from many Nebraska towns.

Displays in high fidelity music, dial phoning, current motors, driverless tractors, closed circuit television, underwater welding, and cooking by radio waves were just a few of the exhibits designed to interest and impress the varied audience examining them.

Unbeatable Opponent

One popular exhibit was an "unbeatable" tic-tac-toe machine which none of the hundreds of human competitors were able to defeat—legally. The complex electronic machine, like others on display, was built by engineering students.

Machines which could measure objects as minute as human hair and others capable of testing capacity up to 400,000 pounds were shown by students of the engineering mechanics department.

For the lazy farmers the students of the agricultural department had just the thing —a radio controlled tractor. Imagine sitting under a large elm tree while your tractor, under the direction of your forefinger, plows the fields.

A portable rubber storage building, which is erected by blowing air inside and anchored by water at the base was one of the popular features of the exhibit. The airhouse was part of the architects' display.

Cupcakes By Radio

To add to the variety, engineers even baked cupcakes by radio wave. Judging from the pleased expressions on the faces of the sampling public, the students proved good cooks as well as good engineers.

The "Test Your Muscle" machine was a favorite of the visiting high schoolers. Many of the visitors were dismayed at the fact that most of the smaller people trying the machine appeared to be stronger than the larger people.

This was done by signal system to the student running the machine, who adjusted the back mechanism to make high scoring easier or more difficult.

The annual Engineers' Week program will be climaxed by a Friday evening awards banquet at Cotner Terrace.

Beynon Says 'No Personal Feelings' In GSA Case

Washington (AP) — Ira D. Beynon, Lincoln attorney, told a House subcommittee Thursday that he had no personal feelings "in this matter regardless of the disclosure of the conduct of Mr. Williams and the Freeport Sulphur Co."

Testimony before a House committee Wednesday was that Freeport Sulphur had hired a private detective to delve into the background of Beynon, now an official with General Services Administration.

The committee is probing a contract under which Freeport Sulphur sells ore to the government's 85-million-dollar nickel plant at Nicaro, Cuba.

Actions 'Uncalled For'

Beynon, who had wept on the stand Wednesday in telling of the snooping, apologized to the subcommittee Thursday for his display of emotion. He said it was uncalled for. And he said the whole affair would make no difference in his official acts with Freeport Sulphur.

"They are welcome to walk in and out of my office as they have in the past and they will receive the same fair treatment as any other prospective purchaser of lessee who is interested in the Nicaro plant," he said.

But he said he considers the contract under which the government is buying ore from Freeport to be unconscionable and said "I am going to do everything I can to remedy that situation."

12 Pageant Contestants Arrive Here

Twelve young ladies, contestants for the title of Miss Nebraska, arrived in Lincoln Thursday to prepare for the Miss Nebraska Pageant, which will be held Saturday evening at Pershing Municipal Auditorium.

The contestants will participate in a 10:30 a.m. parade through Lincoln's business district Friday. The parade will also include the Lincoln Southeast High and Offutt Air Force bands, a Marine color guard, a University of Nebraska Naval ROTC unit, and the Pershing Rifle color guard and drill team.

Contestants in the Miss Nebraska Pageant, which is sponsored by the Nebraska Junior Chamber of Commerce, are:

Jackie Koepplin, Fremont.
Linda Mintken, Sidney.
Martha Sue Moore, Auburn.
Suleal Thompson, Lincoln.
Lois Muhle, Columbus.
Judy Lange, Beatrice.
Barbara Globe, Kearney.
Rita Peterson, Nebraska City.
Arlene Younglund, Ogallala.
Carol Legband, Scottsbluff.
Virginia Cook, Broken Bow.

Gering Man Heads State Funeral Assn.

Stewart Denning of Gering was unanimously elected president of the Nebraska Funeral Directors Assn. Thursday as the group ended its 3-day annual convention in Lincoln. He succeeds Don Butler of Hastings.

Denning

Other officers named were Bill Adams of North Platte, 1st vice-president; Heath Griffiths of Beatrice, 2nd vice-president; and Walter Snyder of Clearwater, treasurer. Bob Garey will continue as executive secretary until the executive board makes a new appointment.

Jack Marshall, funeral director from Tilden, was presented the NFDA "Man of the Year" award for his service to the profession. Mr. Marshall was president of the NFDA from 1942-44.

Wilber Wood of Seward was chosen to receive the NFDA "Friendly Neighbor" award for his service to the community and his helpfulness toward others in and out of the profession.

The Assn., choosing between Lincoln and Omaha as next year's convention site, picked Lincoln by almost a 4-1 majority. Don Butler, immediate past president of the Assn., said that Lincoln hospitality and service makes it "an ideal convention city."

More than 400 directors and their wives attended the 72nd annual convention of the Assn. Displays of funeral and embalming equipment were held at Pershing Auditorium.

Speaking at the Thursday evening annual banquet of the NFDA, Edward McFaul, lecturer from Chicago, accused public information media of "creating insecurity in people by over-emphasis on lives and occurrences off-the-track."

He said that "little is said about normal daily living," and said that "modern advertising talks to us like low-grade morons."

Yugoslavia Won't Give Up Independence

CURT WORD IS SENT TO KREMLIN

Ljubljana, Yugoslavia (AP) — President Tito's chief lieutenant curtly informed the Kremlin Thursday Yugoslav Communists refuse to trade their independence for Soviet cooperation.

One of Tito's top theoreticians, Vice President Edvard Kardelj, suggested tartly the Russians themselves might be the ones guilty of distorting Leninsim—not the Yugoslavs.

Kremlin-line observers at the 7th Yugoslav Communist Party Congress listened in stony silence while the Congress delegates cheered. The Communist bloc observers were back in their seats after a walkout Wednesday during another bristling speech by another Tito lieutenant, Vice President Alexander Rankovic.

Press Counterattack

Kardelj, No. 2 man in the Yugoslav regime after Tito, continued the determined counterattack on Moscow keynoted by the president Tuesday. He appealed to the Congress to adopt a draft program which was the source of the Kremlin's anguish and detonated the new Belgrade-Moscow crisis. The Muscovites insist the program revises Marxism-Leninism as interpreted by the Kremlin. Retorted Kardelj:

"We must tell (our critics) that the program is our program, a program for action of Yugoslav Communists. Therefore, we cannot permit anyone to decide for us what is pro-Marxist and what is not. We cannot allow anyone's cooperation with the Yugoslav Communist Party to depend upon this."

Kardelj's speech indicated Kremlin-Tito relations are back where they were in 1954, when the 2 started a reconciliation attempt.

Clues To Early Plains Culture

Skeletons found by Smithsonian Institution archeologists in South Dakota point to a "find" for the group about the little-known Arikara culture of the 17th or 18th Century. The Indian remains may help fill in details of the tribes of that period for which archeologists have little information.

Archeologists Find Plains Indian Town

Archeologists of the Smithsonian Institution are working fast to uncover facts about what is believed to be the biggest town yet discovered of the Plains Indians in the Missouri Basin.

The area, on the banks of the Missouri River and about 20 miles from Pierre, S.D., is slated to be flooded by the large Oahe Dam.

In a 4,000 by 1,500 foot area believed to be the site of a sedentary northern Plains tribe, archeologists have already discovered skeletal materials which point to habitation of the area about 1600 to 1750.

Dr. Robert L. Stephensen, chief of the Missouri River Basin surveys for Smithsonian, said indications are that some 400 dwellings and 4 large ceremonial lodges are located at the site.

Hruska Sees GOP Sweep

Washington (AP)—Sen. Hruska (R-Neb) Thursday forecast a clean Republican sweep in Nebraska's November elections.

The senator's comments followed a statement by GOP National Chairman Meade Alcorn that it "isn't in the cards" for Republicans to win control of the Senate this year.

Court Order Is Issued To Halt 'Golden Rule'

Honolulu (AP)—A federal judge Thursday issued a court order halting the ketch Golden Rule and its pacifist crew of 4 men from sailing into the American H-Bomb test zone at Eniwetok.

Federal Dist. Judge Jon Wiig issued a temporary restraining order and set May 1 for a hearing.

U. S. Attorney Louis B. Blissard filed the motion for the order.

The Golden Rule was scheduled to sail from Honolulu Friday for the danger zone in protest of U. S. nuclear tests this spring and summer.

There was no immediate word whether the ketch would sail in defiance of the court order.

U.S. Is Waging 'Scientific Olympics,' Local AFA Told

We are engaged in a "scientific olympics" with Russia and will have to be on our toes to win the race, according to Peter J. Schenk, national president of the Air Force Assn.

Speaking to the Lincoln Air Base Sqdn. of the AFA, Schenk outlined a 5-point program designed to gain and maintain technical superiority in the cold war with Russia:

1. "We must keep alive," he said. "We must not become prematurely fascinated with missiles, such as are being tested at Cape Canaveral, although tests must continue. Our ready striking force is the most important defense and military deterrent we have.

2. "We must be informed. The government must not keep vital technical information from our technicians and scientists.

3. "We must reorganize the military management system. Men in the services of our nation must be Americans first, and soldiers, sailors or airmen second. We must eliminate inter-service rivalry and conflict.

4. "We must bring the defense business back into the free enterprise system. In this long cold war, we cannot depend on patriotism alone to keep qualified technicians in federal service. They must receive adequate pay to enter and stay in government work.

5. "We must develop a world outlook. We need to realize that to survive against the Soviet bloc, we must mobilize the strength of the free world. We must win the uncommitted nations if we are to win the scientific olympics with Russia."

FM Radio Music Station To Start Soon

A target date of June 9 has been set for the first broadcast of a new FM radio station in Lincoln specializing in music programs.

Herbert Burton, holder of the construction permit granted Thursday by the Federal Communications Commission for the new station announced the KFMX will go on the air soon from 5 p.m. to midnight weekdays and noon to midnight Saturdays and Sundays.

Burton pointed out that there are more than 8,000 FM radio receivers in the Lincoln area according to a 1956 survey, and added that Lincolnites have already "voiced their enthusiasm at the prospect of getting fine music, static free, on a high-fedelity band."

KFMX will have studios in The First Trust Building at 10th and O. It will broadcast at 93.5 megacycles on the FM dial.

Programming will be mainly music—"varying from progressive jazz to light classics to Beethoven, Brahms and Bach, and in lesser proportion the more modern composers"—and 5-minute newscasts every 2 hours, Burton said.

Use of the KFMX call letters is still subject to FCC approval.

An application has also been made by radio station KFAB in Omaha for an FM permit there.

Typewriter Full Of Tears

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Things will never be the same at the City Hall. Now they have gone and taken the squeak out of the Council chambers by getting rid of the old chairs. Somehow, the squeaks seemed to go so nicely with the squawks. Too bad they couldn't have disposed of the latter first. But at least, we will now have some swivel with the drivel.

Now that we have had a little touch of humor (?), let us get on with the business of condemning. After all, it is much easier to condemn than to be constructive and this is certainly a day for doing things the easy way. What we want to condemn is this whole doggone modern world. We are sick and tired of writing things and then having them get into the hands of people who can disagree with us. If it were not for good and fast mail service (get that plug, Mr. Postmaster?), our writings would be confined to a much smaller audience and the chance for disagreement thereby greatly diminished.

Nuthin' But Criticism

When we wrote a little something about a couple of educators who made speeches to a group in Washington, we thought sure we were safe in interpreting the speeches in our own peculiar way. After all, we were the only ones from Lincoln there, so who could disagree with our report on the subject?

It isn't often you get such a chance so, naturally, we grabbed this one. Naturally, too, we were caught and before the week was up had in the mail a difference of opinion from W. Earl Hall, editor of the Mason City Globe-Gazette.

Two of the three speakers involved were Dr. Arthur Bestor, professor of history at the University of Illinois and past president of the Council for Basic Education; and Dr. William G. Carr, executive secretary of the National Education Association.

Dr. Bestor spoke in behalf of changes in our education system to strengthen curriculum and place greater emphasis on subject matter courses. He cited the small percentages of students taking basic courses in science, mathematics, foreign languages, etc. He noted, also, the trend toward what might be called social adjustment courses and vocational arts.

Dr. Carr stressed the fact that children are better educated today then they were 10 and 20 years ago and that the schools have produced a group of scientists and technicians that are the envy of the world. The schools, he said, were attacked when Russia launched the first Sputnik but there is no praise for the schools now that the satellite score is two up for the U.S. and two down for Russia.

It was our opinion that Dr. Bestor had the better points and was more correct. But Editor Hall looked at the same thing and got, as he puts it, "a 180 degree opposite image." We won't concede that point but will back up on our earlier statement that if the Bestor-Carr debate were judged, Carr would not get a single vote.

On with the condemning. At this point we are disgusted with the world for what it has done to the game of marbles. You may not know it, but to our knowledge, you can't buy a marble bag in Lincoln. Search all the stores—there just isn't any such thing in existence. And the marble offerings! They are all one kind and all one size. What has happened to the coveted taws of not too many years ago? And does any one know any more what "knuckles down, skinny bones tight" means? At least, you never hear it.

That Good Ol' Game Of Mibs

The situation is downright discouraging. The banks may hate us for this but the next best thing to a leather pouch for a marble bag is a bank coin bag. They are good strong canvas and have a drawstring in the top. For this, the newspaper ad boys may hate us but the coin type marble bags, incidentally, are also good advertising among the bank customers of tomorrow.

"We'll Do All The Judging Around Here"

Dedication Of A-Plant Delayed

WASHINGTON — The public doesn't realize it, but one of the great atomic achievements of the world, this one accomplished by the United States, remains undedicated because of personal jealousy. It is the Shippingport atomic reactor near Pittsburgh.

Senators and congressmen on the Joint Congressional Atomic Committee have been burnt up over the administration's failure to dedicate this project, which some of them point out is a greater achievement than Sputnik, also greater than the British atomic reactor at Calder Hall dedicated by Queen Elizabeth.

Last December at Shippingport, for the first time in American history, atomic energy was harnessed and put to industrial use. However, the Shippingport reactor has not yet been dedicated. When senators have inquired of the White House when President Eisenhower would be able to go to Pittsburgh for the ceremony, word has come back that he is too busy.

What makes the senators sore is that Ike was able to participate in a ceremony at West Point and has spent various week ends at Augusta and Gettysburg. Nevertheless, he has not made time available to go to Pittsburgh for a ceremony that would have great propaganda value for the United States abroad.

Congressman Carl Durham of North Carolina, chairman of the Congressional Atomic Committee, wrote a letter to Adm. Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, last October, asking that plans be made for dedication. He suggested recognition of the work of Adm. Hyman Rickover, the man who developed the atomic submarine and also the Shippingport reactor. Strauss gave only a casual reply.

In December, when the new reactor started operation, Westinghouse took full-page ads in various newspapers, paying tribute to Admiral Strauss. Senators say they don't blame Westinghouse for playing up to Strauss. Westinghouse did a good job of building the reactor, but has to remain palsy with Strauss because of other atomic contracts from the AEC.

It was Admiral Rickover who first took the atomic submarine plans to Westinghouse and worked with them in developing. it. The Shippingport reactor uses the same principle as the reactor used in the Nautilus.

One key to the delay in dedicating the reactor may be the personalities of Admiral Strauss and Admiral Rickover. There has been bitter jealousy toward Rickover by some old-line naval officers, and Strauss, though a reserve officer and now a civilian, sometimes seems to wear a lot of gold on his sleeve.

DORIS FLEESON

Connecticut Is Demo Focal Point

HARTFORD, Conn.—Rich in confidence and candidates, Connecticut Democrats are building up either to an old-style donnybrook or a surprise solution in their party primary next June. The governorship and a United States Senate seat are both at stake in November.

Governor Abraham Ribicoff, a leading member of the impressive cadre of governors developed in the recent Democratic resurgence, is unopposed for renomination. His official position is that he prefers another four-year term in the statehouse. Some observers doubt he can be shaken, for they believe that his national goal is not the Senate but the United States Supreme Court.

That, of course, could come only as a gift from a grateful Democratic president. No one is in a better position to put a Democratic nominee for that exalted office under personal obligation than an experienced governor in full control of an important state delegation. Both Ribicoff and his principal political aide, John Bailey, state chairman, are very shrewd operators.

But the Ribicoff-Bailey team is faced with two conditions, not a theory.

One is that a bruising three-cornered fight is in progress for the Democratic nomination for senator. The contenders are Chester Bowles, a former governor and vastly successful former ambassador to India; Bowles' former partner in a famous advertising agency who was once appointed by Bowles to the Senate, William Benton; and Thomas J. Dodd, a former U.S. representative.

Confronted with this array, all with claims to party consideration, everybody now is officially neutral. But the witching hour when somebody has got to make a decision is drawing nigh.

And the second condition the deciders face is that the party has still another promising politician on hand who, everybody agrees, would strengthen the ticket.

He is Mayor Richard C. Lee of New Haven whose last plurality was 23,000, the largest margin ever received by a mayoral candidate in Connecticut. Lee has taken his name out of consideration and is reported to have made certain commitments to Bowles. Still, he is there and politicians rarely resist drafts.

The determining factors will be many. They will include geographical, ethnic and religious considerations which are present to some degree in most states but very important in Connecticut with its many racial groups and more than 50 per cent Catholic population.

The unopposed Republican nominee for senator, William Purtell, is Catholic. So is Mayor Lee. Unless the mayor is drafted, the Democratic ticket will not have a Catholic at the top and the other Connecticut United States senator is a Republican, Prescott S. Bush.

That Chester Bowles is the ablest of the present three candidates for senator is widely conceded. But since he belongs unmistakably to the liberal wing of the Democratic party, there is some fear that he is open to attack as a radical.

THE NEIGHBORS SAY

'Ginger,' Spice Of York Ball Games, Is Gone

By MONA B. PARKER

Editor Fred Rose took a look at the lawn of his Bayard home, a quick peek into the living room, and retired rapidly to his upstairs hideaway. "The grass needs mowing outside and the Missus has a bridge club meeting inside. That's the kind of choice that drives a man right upstairs for a nap."

Schuyler trees are beginning to bud, sighed Francis Rea dreamily, tiny blades of fresh green grass are sprouting, "birds are on the wing and kids are on the lam."

The Fillmore County News recalled an old Spanish proverb that bargained, "You can have all the rest of the year if you will give me April and May" . . .

And remembered, also, in addition to the joyful side, that institution known as spring housecleaning when it included the burdensome task of dragging all the rugs and carpeting outside and laying them on the grass or hanging them over the clothesline where they were subsequently flailed with brooms or wire beaters.

Mary Packwood of the Johnson County Courier says that April 15 has come and gone and "we should all be carefree and cleaned down to the pin feathers . . ."

A well known canine figure will be missing around York, with the death of 13-year-old "Ginger," a beagle belonging to Bobby Beaver who is the same age.

"She was a familiar sight at East Hill ball park during the baseball games," the News-Times wrote of her. "Often time was called while Ginger was escorted from the field."

The springtime bug has bitten the Dodge County board a vitalizing nip, according to the Fremont Guide and Tribune. After 40 years, they're about to do something about the lack of landscaping around the courthouse there, a building which the paper descries as one of the best looking county structures in the state, but which since its construction in 1918 has looked "as unfinished as an Easter outfit without a bonnet."

David City Publisher A. H. Morton was theorizing on how and why newsmen could or would attend a state meeting of the clan in April. But he concluded with the thought that all such ideas were silly, any way you looked at it . . .

"Who in the world ever heard of a newspaper man making enough money to be obligated to Uncle Sam on April 15. Any publisher who made that much wouldn't stop for a state convention in April: he'd go to Florida for a vacation."

H. M. Crilly touched on the state meeting, too, in his Superior Express column. He told of all the valuable tips and information he can glean from the speakers. He remembered one fellow in particular who knew all the answers, but time ran out on him before he could impart this storehouse of knowledge to his listeners . . . .

"I awaited the next convention anxiously, hoping that he would continue, but he didn't show up. The banker in his home town had foreclosed on him during the year."

A Grand Island dog show held for Arch Jarrell the nearly perfect example of the irresistible force and the immovable object. "It was the picture of a 125-pound woman trying to pull along a 150-pound St. Bernard which preferred to lie down."

The New Nixon

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: There is apparently a movement going on to build up Mr. Nixon.

We've never known a build-up like the one now under way
To make Dick Nixon President when comes election day.
The annals of our politics reveal no
parallel;
For prior to his build-up, he must be re-built as well.

This overhaul requires a wash, a wax and polish job;
His friends therefore depict his grief
(pure corn without the cob)
His sorrow and repentance for campaigns of other years
Which launched the Jerry Voorhis and the Helen Douglas smears.

As his excuse he pleads his youth. How,
at that tender age
Did he become a senator? Why not a
Senate page?
His backers try to laugh it off, replying with the quip
That his campaigns were not low-down, just not good sportsmanship.

The wash job isn't finished yet; 'twill take a lot of fixin'
Ere they can hit the headlines thus:
"Presenting the New Nixon!"
We've never watched a build-up such as that now under way
To make Dick Nixon President upon election day.

Sam Freeman

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: In the interests of good government, it should be brought to the attention of Democratic voters in the May 13 primary that Samuel Freeman, candidate for Congress, is a man reported to be in excess of 90 years of age and not capable of carrying out the duties of the office to which he aspires.

Although a candidate for this office many times, he is little known to the voters of this district, conducts little if any campaign and yet has previously received the nomination due primarily to the fact that his is a familiar name on the ballot. This is obviously a challenge to the other qualified men who will be his opponents to accomplish an effective campaign.

When will we return to political party responsibility by pre-primary endorsement of candidates and the indication of same on the ballot?

The people of this district would be interested in the opinion of The Star in this regard. Also, can you confirm the correct age of candidate Sam Freeman?

J. J. EXON

Editor's Note: File records list Mr. Freeman's year of birth as 1867, which would indicate, if accurate, that he will be 91 in 1958.

Street Repairs

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: It appears very poor processing of withdrawals when only a number is used and no list of them was made and registered with the city clerk so a taxpaying petition signer could investigate his city's management.

On the other hand, there are those who feel that without the wheel tax, the city of Lincoln is doomed to worse streets than ever. Look around and see the elaborate engineering of various intersections already accomplished without this extra taxation. Yet the streets feeding into these from downtown have been let go, causing the now needed repairs.

Yearly we already receive nearly $400,000 before matched with federal funds. With the ratio of the added wheel tax of a guessed $250,000 and both with federal funds comes to $16.5 million in 11 years.

I can see no impending disaster by putting it to a vote and especially when it can be proven and will be that there were not enough valid withdrawals.

Property Sale

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: It now appears that the voters will have a chance to o.k. or turn down the sale of city-owned property on 23rd and O Streets. Should such o.k. be given, it will be interesting to see how the sale will be conducted.

Will anyone be able to purchase this property or will certain members of the Council grab it before anyone else gets a chance?

To Spend Or Not?

Broken Bow, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Secretary Weeks says, "We're not out of the woods yet. Quit talking; start selling." How does that sound to Europe and the Russians? And how does it sound to the little taxpayers who are trying to build up a nest-egg to pay Uncle Sam's never-ending demands?

There are more phases to this money question than just spending. Whose money is it in the first place? Ours, of course. And possession is nine points in law.

Something is rotten in the control room, or else someone is sick with the dollaritis disease. If we don't sell and don't buy, what will happen next? More inflation or more deflation? Would we rather have an inflated dollar or a deflated dollar? A recession dollar, they tell us, is a dollar in our pockets or in the bank.

Only a few years ago, we were told to lay aside a few dollars for old age. Now, what has happened to old age? The heads of our government tell us now it is almost a crime to withhold our dollars from circulation.

M. D. STONE

A Lot Of Hay

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The job of intimidation tactics that were activated to sabotage the referendum petitions on the wheel tax will be long remembered in our fair city. Employed groups throughout the city and especially those groups nearest City Hall were subjected to the terriffic pressures of City Hall officialism. These groups were told to withdraw their signatures from the referendum petitions or suffer the consequences for non-withdrawal.

In our three-college city, one would never have believed that such behind-the-scenes skulduggery would be tolerated. This last-ditch effort of the withdrawalists to knock out the referendum requested by the qualified electors has revealed the identity of the interested persons who instigated and sponsored this $16.5 million project to fill the city's chuck holes.

In any city, that many millions is a lot of hay for filling chuck holes. I am wondering if the estimates of our imported engineer on the actual cost of filling chuck holes are not excessive. After all, this is a common labor job, and should not be listed in their column of fantastic figures.

LEO N. BARTUNEK

Ten Years Old

Formal observances in this country have begun in observance of the tenth anniversary of Israel as a modern nation. The goodwill of America at large will go with these observances.

Israel is an example of a nation by synthesis rather than by conquest. It was born under the planning of the United Nations and peopled by the harrassed and displaced of the Jewish faith, largely from Europe. A common homeland was provided for them in a part of old Palestine, their ancient home, on the shore of the western Mediterranean.

Actually the Israelis have done a spectacular job of implanting western knowhow and progress. They are making a desert bloom. They have achieved a common language, a tremendous national spirit, and an enlightened democracy. But their experience has not demonstrated that international order and amity can be achieved through synthesis. Israel has had to fight for its life twice and it continues today as the principal hostile target of its neighboring Arab nations. It is likewise a powder keg in terms of international peace.

The achievements of the Israelis stand as a bright example. But the reception of them is most disappointing. They have neither invoked the friendship of neighbors nor stimulated a desire for equal progress among them. It causes a thoughtful mind to ask, what must an enlightened people do in the world to gain approval and acceptance?

A Forgotten Achievement

A little review of the local situation brings to mind the city's fire protection status. It was not long ago that Lincoln was faced with a substantial increase in fire insurance rates due to a planned change in the city's rating by the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

The city, because of certain deficiencies, was to go from Class Four to Class Five. But this was never permitted to happen due to the alertness of Mayor Bennett Martin and the City Council. The city has received a great deal of criticism in recent months so it seems fair that it should be given credit for this accomplishment which saved all the people of Lincoln many thousands of dollars.

The change in classification was avoided by making certain improvements in our fire protection facilities, primarily by moving ahead with plans for a new fire station at 17th and Van Dorn. The action not only has maintained a more favorable rating for Lincoln but has given the city better protection against the possibility of loss of life and property by fire.

The entire situation was one which required good judgment and fast decisions. From its beginning, it received just that from the mayor and Council. Now that the problem has been solved so advantageously, it should be just as much a point of pride as discovery of the problem was a note of discouragement. It is well to be alert to shortcomings but it is equally important to add up the achievements.

Back To The Cadillacs

Newsweek, this week, assured the nation that Midwest agriculture right now is "Boomland, U.S.A."

In the middle of a recession everywhere else, farmers prices for beef cattle are up 36 per cent, hogs 21 per cent and eggs 33 per cent, and, according to Agriculture Secretary Benson, farm income the first quarter of 1958 reached $13 billion. It was $11.7 billion for the corresponding period a year ago.

It is a plausible story and will affect the thinking of millions of Americans—the same ones who got worked up a few years ago when several national magazines pictured the farmer as a gold Cadillac man, making money hand over fist.

The believing public will not note that the story was based on findings in a limited Kansas-Missouri region which a year ago emerged from a soul searing 5-year drought—so bad that two and three years ago a good deal of it was declared a disaster area where federal aid hay was shipped in to save livestock from starvation, but which failed to save any number of long time operators from bankruptcy.

One can make a case for advancing prices in much of this area by adjusting comparisons of today's income with the slim figures of the late drought period, or against pork and cattle prices when this region was forced to glut the market at ruinous prices. But such comparisons are not a reliable yardstick of prosperity.

The Newsweek article would have done well to examine the field more thoroughly. It would find it difficult to explain why in such productive prosperity the Department of Agriculture was swamped with bids by operating farmers who were willing to get out of business entirely by dumping their farms in the total soil bank. Money making operators just don't do such things.

The Tax Cut

No one has as yet given a satisfactory explanation of how a tax cut will end the recession, or how it will do other than protect profits without requiring re-employment or downward readjusted prices. But the proposal dies hard. Lately the Committee for Economic Development asked for an across the board 20 per cent tax cut. It sounds fair, but it reminds of the fellow who threw his $100 into an oil well deal while inducing his wealthier friend to invest his whole $50 thousand. When the venture failed the first fellow said, "We both came out alike. We lost all we had."

Visit By Red Vets Blasted

. . . VFW Commander Charges 'Propaganda'

The visit to this country of 5 Russian war veterans headed by Aleksei Petrovich, secretary of the Soviet Veterans Committee, has been denounced by Frank H. Short, Lincoln commander of the Department of Nebraska Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The Russian group was invited to this country by the American Veterans of the Elbe link-up, and arrived in the United States Apr. 22.

"To recognize this Soviet delegation as anything more than an official delegation from the Kremlin would be ridiculously naive," Short said.

Short said that if the Russian veterans organization desires recognition "from respectable veterans groups" in this country, it should denounce Communist aggression, and urge the removal of all Russian troops from Hungary.

He concluded that until the Soviet veterans committee is ready to prove it is more "than a mouthpiece for the Kremlin," the VFW will object to "propaganda-inspired visits to the United States."

Our sales for every week of this year (1958) and for each store, have been substantially ahead of the corresponding weeks of last year (1957) for which we are truly grateful.

This signifies that our program of giving our customers their choice of GOOD quality foods and known brands at low everyday prices is meeting with increasingly GOOD acceptance.

Our markup and profit on more sales for 1957 was below that for 1956 which means that we are working for our customers, not for a trading stamp company.

Senate Unit Passes Armed Forces Pay Hike Bill

Washington (AP)—A bill carrying raises of 577 million dollars a year for career members of the armed forces was approved unanimously by the Senate Armed Services Committee.

The legislation would make it possible for a non-commissioned officer to earn $9,864 a year if he were eligible for flying and special proficiency pay in addition to his base pay and allowances for quarters and food.

Chiefs of Staff, if eligible for flight pay, could earn as much

An officer on the Joint as $31,104 a year under the bill.

It now goes to the Senate, where it probably will be acted upon next week. The benefits are planned for officers and men with more than 2 years' service.

Sealed Down

The Senate measure follows the general pattern of one previously passed by the House except that some of the increases were scaled down and one new category added.

This would be special "responsibility pay" of between $50 and $100 a month for a limited number of officers from captain to colonels in the Army and Air Force and from senior grade lieutenants to captains (the equivalent ranks) in the Navy.

Sen. Stennis (D-Miss), chairman of the Senate subcommittee which drafted the complex bill after months of study and hearings, said it gives the armed services "almost all the things they have been blaming for their deficiencies."

"This now puts it up to the armed services," Stennis declared.

Limited

He explained that the new responsibility pay for officers would be limited to 5% of all captains or equivalent rank in each service and 10% of all majors, lieutenant colonels and colonels, or equivalent rank.

A good example of an officer eligible for the responsibility pay, Stennis said, would be a commander of a Strategic Air Force goup.

A similar proficiency pay scale for enlisted men would give them from $50 to $150 a month extra, it would go to skilled technicians such as radar men and aircraft mechanics. This pay would be limited to 15% of the enlisted strength.

The Senate accepted a House provision for a 6% across-the-board "cost of living" increase for some 200,000 persons now on the retired rolls.

2 Suits Seeking $82,000 Damages

Two damage suits for a total of nearly $82,000 have been filed against Donald T. Headrick of Waverly in Lancaster District Court in connection with a 2-car accident near Mead last Oct. 13.

Headrick is named as driver of a car which was in collision with one in which Mrs. Georgia Erdkamp of Exeter and Christine Becker, also of Exeter, were passengers. Mrs. Erdkamp asks $41,445.55 damages for injuries she allegedly received and Mrs. Becker seeks $40,548.45 damages for her alleged injuries.

Nixon Favors A Tax Cut If Further Economy Action Is Needed

New York (AP) — Vice President Nixon said that if further government action is needed to stimulate recovery, he still believes a tax cut "is the fastest, the best, and surest method to accomplish this result."

He did not advocate tax reduction at this time or say how President Eisenhower felt on this issue. But he did say Eisenhower told him "very bluntly" last week the recession "should not be used for adopting massive new spending programs" of types that would "give little stimulation to the economy at this time."

Nixon discussed the question in an address at the annual dinner of the American Newspaper Publishers Association's Bureau of Advertising.

In saying he preferred tax cutting to "a spending binge" that could only lead "to a hangover of debt and inflation," he declared:

'Right Kind'

"However, a tax cut will not do the job unless it is the right kind. It must be designed to put money in the hands of investors and job creations, as well as consumers.

"It will not do the job if it is used simply to provide a popular political hand-out in an election year. It can succeed in its purpose only if it is designed to stimulate more production and more jobs for the American people."

If the economy can come through "the present downturn without additional massive governmental intervention on either the tax front or the spending front," he said, "that would be desirable because of the inevitable deficit that either of such actions would bring."

Whatever steps are necessary, Nixon said, the administration will take.

"We can state this one conclusion categorically," he said "There will be no depression in the United States.

"This is true both because of the basic strength of our economy and because it is backstopped by the determination of the national administration to use every proper governmental action to stop a prolonged recession and to help stimulate early resumption of a high rate of economic activity."

Regent Foote Fires Blast At Dual NU Matriculation

By Bill Anderson

The subject of dual matriculation — fulfilling requirements of a major both in Teachers College and in the subject matter college—received a blast from one member of the University of Nebraska Board of Regents.

Discussing the controversial teacher certification question, Frank O. Foote, regent from Axtell, said, "I am unalterably opposed to dual matriculation. It is a roadblock and a barrier in the successful training of teachers."

Three Teachers College members of a 6-man committee which submitted recommendations to the Board of Regents this week as to the problem of teacher certification had urged that the principle of dual matriculation be continued.

Dropped By Many Schools

Foote said that many other schools in the state had discontinued dual matriculation, and have still operated "very successfully." He said that the Board of Regents will thoroughly study the situation and will "undoubtedly come up with some answer."

Dr. B. N. Greenberg of York said that the teacher certification question "is a big subject, and cannot be tied into one package. It just cannot be resolved without a great deal of additional study." He commended the committee for a "fine and impartial" job in reviewing the subject.

Regents J. G. Elliott of Scottsbluff and Charles Y. Thompson of West Point did not wish to comment until they had thoroughly studied the committee's recommendations. Regents J. LeRoy Welsh and Clarence E. Swanson were not available for comment.

The 6-man committee split down the middle on the subject of dual matriculation, as 3 Arts and Sciences and Business Administration professors on the committee voiced the opinion that dual matriculation "has produced friction between colleges; it has been a discouragement to students entering the teaching profession; and it has not been supported by some of those entrusted to implement the program."

The Board of Regents postponed discussion on the 6-page committee report until members have had a chance to study all recommendations.

Council Folds

London (AP) — London's anti-vice council folded up. It said there is still plenty of vice around, but no one seems to mind. There wasn't sufficient response to appeals for money to carry on the council's work.

Happy Half Hour

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower spent a happy half hour admiring 35 oil paintings by Sir Winston Churchill.

He remarked enthusiastically: "I like the old boy—He and I are great friends."

The President, himself an amateur artist of some note, was accompanied on the tour at the Smithsonian Institution by his wife.

Hearing Set On Judge English Motion

The State Supreme Court has set a May 5 hearing on the motion of Judge James English, Omaha, for an extension of time to plead to an information affidavit citing him for contempt of court.

Clarence S. Beck, attorney general, recently filed the information against Judge English for alleged violation of Canon 35 which forbids the use of photographic and sound recording equipment during court proceedings.

Beck charged Judge English with allowing newsmen to use the equipment during the murder trial of George Daniel Jones Jr.

DELAPLANE'S

POSTCARD

I went to sleep in Honolulu on Saturday night. And when I woke up on Wake Island it was Monday. You cannot afford to get older this fast at my age.

Somwhere en route while I was in my berth, the captain sneaked over the International Date Line—I did not even feel a bump. I poked my head out into the rainy, dark morning two days older.

I am flying Pan American's round-the-world Flight 1 to Tokyo. We stop at Wake Island for gas. My stomach and sleep mechanism is in usual revolt. No matter what the clock says on Wake, my built-in sleeper says it is time to get up and have breakfast.

All the other passengers were down getting breakfast. But I did not even wake when we dropped on the runway. It was 1 o'clock by Wake time. The runway was glistening with water and reflection of the green-and-gold field lights.

There was a wonderful warm, wet tropic smell to the air.

The stewardess said I could get off. But to stay around. (Stewardesses mother me. They think I will get lost, even on the nine miles around the lagoon at Wake Island.)

Another way I can tell what time it REALLY is, is by feeling my chin. If I need a shave, it is morning and time for breakfast. That is a normal, intelligent way to tell time.

International Date Lines mean nothing to me. What I need is an international razor and an international appetite. It is morning in San Francisco. I have both beard and appetite to prove it.

After awhile we all got aboard again. The other passengers went back to bed. They had just eaten breakfast. But they climbed back in the sack, the sloths. Conformists.

It was dark out. So they went back to bed.

I used to con my parakeet the same way. When he jabbered while I was working, I threw a towel over his cage. Immediately that bird figured it was night. He shut up and went to sleep. Better he should have consulted his whiskers. And whether he felt hungry or not.

The Pan American lady said firmly that the company runs by local time.

"We will serve breakfast when it gets light. In about three hours."

"Suppose I ran my shaving by such methods," I said. "How would the company feel if I ate on your time and ran my face on real time? Suppose I had five o'clock shadow at eight in the morning?"

The lady gave me a cup of soup and a cup of coffee. I should drink it and go back to sleep like a good parakeet.

SOUTH HILLS

One of the bridge groups in South Hills was in full swing on Thursday—so we hear. The festivities were held at the Richard McKenzie home where the ladies gathered in the morning for coffee and chatting. Bridge was next on the calendar of events and 'round about noon the members took time out from their game to enjoy a luncheon.

Included among the guests for the party were Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. Walter Hudkins, Mrs. Russell Heller, Mrs. Art Handel, Mrs. James Mann, Mrs. William Burford and Mrs. Leslie Walrath.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bomberger's two youngsters, David and Mary, had a big time celebrating their birthday anniversaries the first part of April. We understand that David was three years old on April 8, and Mary's first birthday was an event of April 11, and included among the courtesies given in their honor was the recent evening dinner party held at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Nolte. And on the following evening Mr. Bomberger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Bomberger, were on hand at the Bomberger home to help them celebrate.

It was on Thursday, April 10, when Mrs. Bomberger was hostess at a party for her children and the guests were members of the younger generation in the neighborhood. Joining David and Mary during the afternoon were Gail, Richard and Cheryl Keller, Brad and Darrel Grell, Yvonne and James Splichal, Bobby Joe and Robert Musselman. Mrs. Louis Keller also was a guest at the affair.

To climax the week's activity the two youngsters had an informal party on Sunday afternoon, April 13, for their aunts and cousins. Trekking to the Bomberger home for the event were Mrs. John Garcia and her children, Tom and Gary, and Mrs. Harlan Allen and her daughters, Judy and Marcilee.

Heard that Mrs. Alvin Freeman and her two children, Robin and Ronald, and Mrs. Evelyn Mart will motor to York on Tuesday morning for a brief visit with Mrs. Freeman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Armstrong and their daughter, Cindy.

We also learned this morning that Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Smith and their three children, Susan, Craig and Kim entertained guests last week end who were Mr. and Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Smith of Ottawa, Kan.

KESSLER HEIGHTS

We know of a recent bridge hostess in Kessler Heights—Mrs. John Minick—who entertained at an afternoon dessert and bridge party on Tuesday. Included in the eightsome were two guests, Mrs. Carroll Stier and Mrs. H. C. Overgaard.

News of the younger set concerns one of the Kessler Heights Blue Bird Troops that will entertain their mothers on Tuesday afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. Stewart Goldberg. Mrs. William Benker, assistant leader, also will be on hand for the social event at which the young ladies will present a play, "Little Red Riding Hood," for their mothers. Members of the group are Linda Goldberg, Carol Benker, Cheri Vowler, Linda Lyberis, Vicki Mattioli, Lynn Robare and Joyce Schneider.

CHATTER In The CORRIDOR

By DIANE GEIER

The American Field Service student from Lincoln High this summer will be Jeannie Morrison. Jeannie doesn't know yet where she will go but she hopes it will be to the Scandanavian countries because the Morrisons were fortunate to have an A.F.S. student in their home last year from Sweden.

Ann Muehlbeier, Mark Sorenson, Ned Prucha, and Betty Jones, all seniors at Lincoln High were awarded prizes for their essays concerning "Employment of the Handicapped." Mayor Bennett Martin presented the awards at the annual Easter assembly.

A new face seen around last week was that of Miss Linda Teal, who was home from Monticello for spring vacation.

Seventy Lincoln High seniors were officially initiated into National Honor Society last Friday and presented before the school in an assembly on Monday. Members must be chosen from those who rank in the upper one-fourth of the class in scholarship. From that group, those who have the highest combined ranking in scholarship, citizenship, leadership, and service to the school as shown on the permanent record cards are elected to membership. Not more than 15 per cent of the class may be elected. Officers of National Honor Society are elected by the group. This year's officers are: Neil Unterseher, president; Mark Sorenson, vice-president; Janet Lytle, secretary; and Bob Hill, treasurer. They were installed by last year's officers.

April 18 was the date of the big Aqualinks show in the Public Schools Activities Building pool.

The members of the junior play cast have been announced. They are: Pat Haley, Sharon Binfield, Margaret Hendrickson, Arnid Garson, Louise Shadley, Chip Kuklin, Joel Lundak, and Sandy West.

Town Talk

—for a moment or two this morning it appeared that travelers would dominate the news—but they eventually shared honors with news of the Richard Wielands—Dr. and Mrs.—and a new member of the talcum powder crowd.

—we've decided to begin the day's chatter with Dr. and Mrs. Wieland—Mrs. Wieland, the former Lynn Holland, is expected in Lincoln very early in June and will be joined here by Dr. Wieland immediately following his release from Navy duty in July.

The nicest part of the story is the end—Dr. and Mrs. Wieland will reside in Lincoln.

—one of our very newest newcomers is the small Miss Carrie Jean Von Gillern who arrived on Wednesday, April 23 at Lincoln General Hospital. Miss Carrie Jean's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roger Von Gillern, and her mother is the former Nancy Swanson, daughter of Mrs. L. E. Swanson, and Delta Gamma at Nebraska. Mrs. Kathleen Von Gillern is the paternal grandmother.

—time out now for a report on a report—This, as you know, is membership campaign week for the members of the Lincoln Symphony Association, which means that the Symphony Guild and the campaign workers are hard at it.

According to news from the report luncheon held Thursday the campaign is progressing in a satisfactory fashion. Luncheon speakers included Mrs. Kenneth Clark and Mrs. Jack Stewart, co-chairmen of the campaign, and Mrs. Mark Pierce whose husband has been a member of the Lincoln Symphony Orchestra for 32 years.

—back home again is Mrs. Harry Everett who has been spending the past few months on the west coast—Mrs. Everett visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bosse in Eugene, Ore.; another son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Still in Pacific Grove, Calif., and her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Everett, Jr., in Ventura, Calif.

—understand that Sunday will be homecoming day for Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Phelps who are having a two-weeks holiday in Miami, Fla.

—and off to Chicago yesterday for a Wednesday-to-Monday stay were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Druliner. The trip involves business for Mr. Druliner—but it's a strictly-for-fun jaunt for Mrs. Druliner.

Plan High School Reunion

A reunion to plan a reunion took place on Wednesday when a group of Lincoln High School alumni met for luncheon at the University Club to discuss the possibility of a gathering of the class of 1908.

Members of the committee planning the reunion, tentatively set for June 6, included (seated, from the left) Mrs. Rex Davies and Miss Marguerite Klinker, and (standing) Walter L. Davis, Miss Grace Bennett, Mrs. Walter Davis and Clarence L. Clark.

A flow of reminiscing surely will be in order on that June day of reunion for the class never has met — or even exchanged news letters — since graduation fifty years ago.

Betrothal

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Tove Jensen, daughter of Mrs. Dagny Jensen of Copenhagen, Denmark, and the late Rev. Frederick Jensen, to Carroll G. French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merwyn G. French of Page.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

A graduate of Kommune Hospital School of Nursing in Aarhus, Denmark, the bride-to-be is serving with the Methodist Mission, Kapange, Elizabethville, in the Belgian Congo, Africa. Mr. French, who is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, recently received his discharge from the Air Force and also is serving at the mission in Belgian Congo.

Dear Abby . . .

Desserts Make Difference

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: After a man reaches the age of 40 or 45 he is expected to have a fling, but my husband isn't even 30 yet and he has had two already. I can't understand it either as he seems very happy at home. Isn't there some way I can keep him true to me? I am a good cook and housekeeper and even bake my own bread. GOOD WIFE

DEAR GOOD: Man cannot live by bread alone. Even home-made bread. Find out what he likes for dessert.

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 20 and my parents will tell you themselves they never had any trouble with me. I'm in love with a boy, 22. He has a good job and goes to night school to better himself. My parents have tried to break us up because they say a boy who comes from a broken home is a poor risk for marriage. We love each other, Abby, and I don't think it's fair to blame him because his parents were divorced when he was small. Please give me your opinion. A GIRL IN LOVE

DEAR GIRL: Most children from broken homes make better husbands and wives. Having learned from bitter experience how tough it is to be raised in those circumstances, they try doubly hard to make a "go" of marriage.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are the same age and have been married for sixteen years. Ever since the day we were married he has referred to me as his "old lady." I was 20 years old then and that is far from being an old lady. My husband says it is just an expression but I am fed up to the neck hearing him say "The old lady this" and the "old lady that." I know he could call me lots worse, but I still don't like it. What can I do? MRS. X.X.

DEAR MRS. X.X.: Don't take him literally. Remember you are a LADY and if you are OLD at this age, then so is your old man.

DEAR ABBY: This neighborhood is getting absolutely impossible. I have to go to work at 5:00 a.m. and so I need my night's sleep. Every time a car goes past, the neighbor's dog barks. Even when an airplane flies over the house that dog barks. It is getting so that the dog barks for nothing. Then another dog in the distance answers him. The two of them bark at each other all night long and by morning I am so worn out I could drop. How can I stop this? SLEEPLESS

DEAR SLEEPLESS: Speak to the owner of the dog in your neighborhood. Tell him if he doesn't keep his dog quiet at night you will have to report him to the police. If that doesn't work—make good your threat.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

We Hear That

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wendelin were Mrs. Wendelin's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jungblut and their son, Steve of Scottsbluff; and Mr. and Mrs. Jungblut's daughter, Mrs. Dave Raber and her daughter, Carol Ann, of Santa Barbara, Calif. Other guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendelin were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Raber, also of Santa Barbara.

Candidate Charges 'Personal Use' Of State Car By Employe

A candidate for state railway commissioner charged Thursday night that a commission employe is driving a state-owned car for his personal use between his Omaha home and Lincoln office, and the employe countered that the state car is being used because "I work here at home in the evenings."

Marilyn Jeanne Stroman, who seeks the GOP nomination for the office of commissioner, charged incumbent Commissioner Joseph J. Brown with "laxity and downright neglect of duty" in allowing the practice.

She charged that Wade A. Hall, acting secretary of the Commission "is driving a state-owned 1957 Ford, license number 00-756, between his home in Omaha and his office in Lincoln on working days as a means of providing personal transportation for himself."

Hiring Auditors

Miss Stroman said she was engaging the national auditing firm of Peat, Marwick & Mitchell to "further examine gasoline charge slips in an effort to discover other irregularities whereby employes of the Commission use state cars for personal uses."

She added that Brown "argues that because he is an attorney he should remain on the Commission. As an attorney he should read Section 81,1007, RRS 1943, which prohibits state employes from using state-owned cars for their personal use."

Brown could not be reached for comment Thursday night.

'Have Own Car'

Contacted at his home in Omaha, Hall told The Lincoln Star that he drives the car between Lincoln and Omaha but that "it is not for my personal use, I have my own car."

"I work here at home in the evenings, not every evening, of course, and on Saturdays and Sundays," Hall said, "revising motor carriers' annual reports to the Commission and revising accounting classifications for motor carriers in connection therewith."

Hall said he had been hired by the Commission "not quite a year ago" for this "special assignment."

He said, "my duties as acting secretary do not allow me enough time to do this in the office and it has to be done sometime."

86-Year-Old To Be Initiated Into Sesostris Shrine Temple

An 86-year-old Shrine candidate is to be among those initiated into Lincoln's Sesostris Temple at its spring ceremonial Friday.

A downtown parade is scheduled at 3:30 p.m., weather permitting. Ritualistic and initiation ceremonies will be held at 7 p.m. at the State Fairgrounds, following a banquet at the Sesostris Temple.

Shrine officials from temples at Omaha, Hastings, Salina, Kan., and Sioux City, Ia., are expected. Representatives from Wichita, Kan., Des Moines, Ia., and Topeka, Kan., have been invited to attend.

Drake Relays' Records Threatened If Weather Holds

Des Moines (AP)— A forecast of "pretty good weather" boosted already high hopes for a host of records in the Drake Relays opening today.

The weather Bureau said it would be partly cloudy with a high of near 50. The bureau expects the same cloudy conditions Saturday with even warmer temperatures. No rain, often a Drake plague, is expected.

"They ought to have pretty good weather," the weatherman said.

Seven final events in the university and college sections are on today's program. It could develop into a highly interesting afternoon. The potential is here for a possible Drake record in every event.

The relays events will be highlighted by the University sprint medley in which Oklahoma will attempt to repeat its spectacular victory in the Kansas Relays.

The Sooners raced to a new intercollegiate record of 3:19.5, but barely staved off Houston, Oklahoma State, and Nebraska.

Kansas is the leading contender in the four-mile relay. The Jayhawks twice this season have been under their own Drake record of 17:15.9.

Howard Payne (Texas) is the favorite in the college distance medley. The Southwest team won at Kansas in 10:08.3. The Drake mark is 10:13.7. Arizona State of Tempe, featuring the Australian Alex Henderson; Miami (Ohio), the record-holder, and Western Michigan are considered top threats.

A discus duel between Al Oerter of Kansas, the Olympic champion, and Richard (Rink) Babka of Southern California head the individual events. Both are capable of bettering the world mark of 194 feet, 6 inches.

Deacon Jones of Iowa is the two-mile favorite; Ernie Shelby of Kansas is rated the best of the broad jumpers and Gene O'Connor of Kansas State and Cliff Cushman of Kansas are the top hands in the 440-yard hurdles.

Injuries took three possible recordbreakers out of the relays—John Fromm of Pacific Lutheran, defending champion in the javelin; Ernie Haisley of Illinois, Big Ten indoor high jump champion.

Keith Gardner, the versatile Nebraska performer from Jamaica, will be appearing three times with the sprint medley, the shuttle hurdles team and the 440-yard relay quartet.

The other members of the shuttle hurdles team will be Keith Young, Bill Marten and Bill Hawkins. All four are capable of :15 or better. Gardner has a :14.0 clocking. The Huskers were second to Missouri in this event a year ago, as the Tigers set a Drake record with :58.4. The Husker foursome believes it can better this mark.

Ken Pollard, Husker vaulter, also will compete at Des Moines.

The Nebraska relays teams entered are:

Sprint medley — Keith Gardner, Keith Young, Dick Jahr, Mike Fleming.

Shuttle hurdles — Bill Marten, Bill Hawkins, Keith Young, Keith Gardner.

440-yard relay — Gardner, Young, Tom Hodson, Don Phillipps.

880-yard relay — Gardner, Young, Hodson, Jahr.

2-mile relay — Ken Ash, Knolly Barnes, Joe Mullins, Fleming.

Topeka Falls In Opener

Lincoln Star Special

Topeka, Kan. — Lincoln's Chiefs were off to a running start in quest of their third straight Western League pennant as they crushed the Topeka Hawks here Thursday night, 11-6.

The big difference in the 1958 opener, witnessed by 1055 frigid fans, was the relief pitching by fire-balling Larry Foss.

It was Foss, 24-year-old righthander, who proved the only effective hurler in the slugging match as he blanked the Hawks over the last four innings on two hits.

And that was quite a feat in a game that had 26 hits, including four home runs, two triples and five doubles.

Manager Monty Basgall's crew, not labeled as a bunch of sluggers, found Topeka's ball park to their liking.

Ray Looney, a 21-year-old rookie out of George Washington University, unleashed a startling performance in his first professional game.

The fancy fielding first-sacker from Pittsburgh, Pa., lashed out two home runs and a double for his night's work.

Joining him right at the top of the hit parade was outfielder Jim Aldredge, an 18-year-old with just one previous year of Class C ball. Aldrege banged out a homer, double and a single to drive in three runs.

Ronnie Sheetz opened on the mound for Lincoln and was ahead 2-1 going into the fourth. Only a homer by Rufus Johnson had marred his performance.

In the fourth two singles and a walk loaded the bases with Hawks with none out. Basgall called in Lefty Bill Dial. He fanned Howard singled for a pair of runs. Dial fanned pitcher Wendall Rouse but John Smirnoff Doss but Clem Koshorek singled for two more and it was 5-2 for the Hawks.

Lincoln got one back in the fifth but Topeka scored again off Dial in the fifth and held a comfortable 6-3 lead.

That's when Foss took over and the Hawks were done scoring for the evening.

Lincoln had scored twice in the third on a fielder's choice, Looney's double and Aldredge's single.

In the fifth Aldredge singled and scored on infield hits by Elmo Plaskett and Earl Fackler.

Lincoln went ahead for good in the top of the sixth. Morris Cigar walked and scored as pinchhitter Dave Brennan bounced a triple over Al Peterson's head in right field.

Eddie Sada, also in his first pro grame, doubled to left center to score Brennan and then Looney hit his first home run, a line drive over the right field wall about 320 feet away.

Cigar scored again in the seventh as he walked, stole second and came home on Foss' single to left.

Looney's second homer came in the eighth. Another run scored in the same frame as Plaskett singled, went to

Walls' 3 Homers Over Screen Trim Dodgers

Cubs Win 15-2; 6 Hit Out

Los Angeles (AP)—Lee Walls, who hit only six home runs all last season, smacked three over the Coliseum's strained screen and drove in eight runs Thursday as the first place Chicago Cubs blasted the Los Angeles Dodgers 15-2.

Walls, 25 and in his fourth major league season, hit his first of the year in Wednesday night's 7-6 victory.

Bobby Thomson of the Cubs and Dodgers Charlie Neal and Don Zimmer also homered Thursday—for a game total of six. In all, 24 have been hit in six games in the Dodgers' temporary home, with most of 'em making mush of the mesh that rises 42 feet and stretches 140 feet across left field from the foul line, a scant 250 feet from the plate.

TOSS TO ROW 76 COSTS DUKE $275, SORE ARM, BOSS' IRE

Los Angeles (AP)—Duke Snider got in and out of the Dodger doghouse in just 24 hours.

After he hurt his right elbow in some horseplay Wednesday, he was ordered off the payroll until he was in condition to play again.

But he lost only one day's pay — for Wednesday night's game—because he was back in the starting lineup Thursday.

Manager Walt Alston said Snider told him Thursday his arm hurt somewhat but he felt he was in condition to play, "so I'm going to let him play."

Snider got the elbow injury when he and infielder Don Zimmer engaged in a pregame contest to see whether they could throw a baseball over the Coliseum rim, wihch is 79 rows and 106 feet up. Snider couldn't quite make it, although he pegged up to row 76. On another try he got a pain in his elbow.

Dr. Robert Woods said the injury did not appear to be serious but Snider went home to Long Beach and nursed it with an electric warming bandage.

Alston and General Manager E. J. (Buzzy) Bavasi went into a tizzy when they heard about it. Then came the order that he was off pay until in condition to play again. Jim Gilliam played left field Wednesday night when the Chicago Cubs beat the Dodgers 7-6.

At a reported $42,500 a year salary, the one-game stay in the doghouse figures out to a penalty of about $275.

Huskers Host CU Today In Crucial Big 8 Series

The chips are on the table for Nebraska's baseball team today as the Huskers and visiting Colorado open a three-game stand at 3 p.m.

"We have to sweep the series to stay in contention for the Big Eight championship," Coach Tony Sharpe said Thursday night, "Or at least win two to stay close to Missouri and those Oklahoma teams."

Nebraska and Colorado currently are tied for fourth in the league with 3-3 records.

Coach Sharpe has nominated Dwight Siebler for mound chores against the Buffaloes in today's game. The righthander has a 4-0 mark this spring and a sterling 2.17 earned run average.

"I'll start Charley Ziggenbein in the first game of Saturday's doubleheader," Sharpe said, "but I don't know who'll be out there in the second game. It depends how we do in the first two."

Bill Subry has been named to pitch for Colorado today, with Joe Puleo—unscored on in two Big Eight decisions—slated for the Saturday opener. Del Ritchhart will hurl Saturday's nightcap.

Nebraska's lineup will be juggled somewhat today. Sharpe has moved second baseman Al Karle to shortstop, with shortstop Dough Sieler taking over second.

Probably lineups:

Colorado—Larry Anderson, ss; Roger Kinney, 2b; Leon Shell, c; Chuck McIntyre, 1b; Lloyd Manown, 3b; Bernie Molliconi, cf; Gene Lenderman, rf; Darrell Higman, lf, and Subry.

Nebraska—Gary Reimers, cf; Sieler, 2b; Karle, ss; Larry Lewis, rf; Jim Kane, c; Ken Ruisinger, 1b; Gene Torczon, lf; Jerry McKay, 3b, and Siebler.

Other Big Eight games this weekend find Iowa State at Oklahoma; Oklahoma State at Kansas and Missouri at Kansas State. All meet in three-game stands.

POINT BLANK

By Don Bryant

Sports Editor, The Star

No baseball player or fan will ever mistake Sherman Field for Yankee Stadium, since there's only one concession stand.

But the Lincoln ball-yard has come a long way since general manager Dick Wagner took over the reins.

The stands are clean, the accommodations comfortable and the playing field is excellent—a far cry from the mess Wagner inherited 4 years ago.

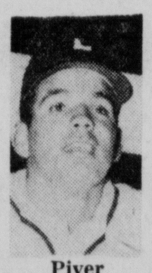
Nick Koback, the Chiefs' catcher, could hardly believe his eyes when he surveyed Sherman Field last Tuesday.

After looking over the field and the stands, Nick hailed Wagner and said:

"Dick, old boy, I don't like to do it, but I've got to congratulate you. I wouldn't have believed this place could look this good."

Koback, you'll remember, did a tour of duty with Bill Burwell during the 1955 season (Wagner's first, coming here directly from Pittsburgh where he served his bonus time.

"I'm glad to see you've spent some money," Nick grinned. "That's the way to do it."



Piver

Wagner probably cringed on that remark. Money at Sherman Field has never been a surplus commodity. But the Lincoln GM has managed to refurbish the park—through wise management and financial help from the city and county—despite the tight budget.

Manager Monty Basgall paid Sherman Field just about the finest compliment a baseball player could give. It's axiomatic in the business to knock the park and gripe about the facilities. But not the genial Lincoln skipper.

He cut loose with a broad grin—which may become his trademark unless the Chiefs go on an extended losing streak—and said:

"Say, this place is all right. There's nothing wrong with this park."

Koback and Vern Piver, Lincoln's second catcher who may see infield duty, have already staked their claim to the club's Abbott and Costello title.

During picture-taking, Piver broke up photographer Bob Gorham when he cracked:

"Hey, Koback . .. move away from the photographer. Your ears are casting a shadow."

The Chiefs' bonus babies — first baseman Ray Looney and shortstop Ed Sada—are taking a lot of good-natured ribbing.

When they had their pictures taken, the other players set up a chorus of "Money! Money! Money!"

Lincoln vet Dave Brennan, who ranks with Piver and Koback in the quip department, proved he was thinking all the time:

"We've got to get these bonus kids off to a good start. They've got to take good care of their money. So I'll room with Sada and Piver will room with Looney."

PS: These hustling, fine-spirited young players will launch the home season Sunday afternoon at Sherman Field. See you there.

Casper's 65 Leads At Las Vegas

Las Vegas (AP)—Billy Casper shot a seven-under par 65 to lead a field of 22 golfers in the first round of the $40,000 Tournament of Champions.

Mastering the par 36-36—72, 7,048-yard Desert Inn Country Club, the 26-year-old California professional made the grand tour under a broiling sun in 33-32—65, tying the single round set a year ago by Don January.

Casper's big round held firm and far in front until Frank Stranahan sunk a 40-foot curling putt on the 18th green for a birdie three and a round of 32-34—66.

Dapper Gene Littler, who has won this rich event three straight years, put in a solid bid for a fourth victory with 35-33—68.

Tied at 69 were Stan Leonard of Vancouver, B.C., 35-34—69; Tommy Bolt, 35-34—69, and newcomer Bill Johnston of Provo, Utah, 33-36—69.

"I guess this is my best round of golf," Casper said as he sipped a soft drink in the press tent.

"Sometimes you have these kind of days, and I had one today," said Stranahan, who was among the last to finish in a twosome with Johnston.

A's Rattle Tigers With 12 Hits For 7-2 Victory

Kansas City Hurlers Give Up 7 Safeties

Kansas City (AP)—The brash Kansas City Athletics continued their robust hitting Thursday, launching a 12-hit attack against Bob Shaw and two other Detroit pitchers as they coasted to a 7-2 victory.

The Athletics, backing up the seven-hit pitching of knuckleballer Wally Burnette and reliefer Tom Gorman, jumped into a two-run lead in the first inning and were never behind.

Burdette, battling to stay on the Kansas City staff after a poor season last year, held the Tigers in check on four hits and a single run through six innings but had to have help in the seventh when the Tigers scored one run with the help of an error by shortstop Joe De Maestri. After Jim Hegan got on via De Maestri's poor throw with one out, singles by Gail Harris and Frank Bolling brought in the counter. Gorman came on to stop the Tigers with only one hit—Ike Boone's single in the eighth.

Vic Power, the A's cleanup hitter who has a batting average of .194, lowest in the club's starting lineup, broke out of a hitting slump and drove in three runs, stroking a double and single.

In the first inning, Mike Baxes singled, Bill Tuttle walked and both moved up on Hec Lopez' sacrifice. Power's groundout to third brought in Baxes and Bob Cerv drove in his 15th run with a whistling double to left that scored Tuttle.

Bosox Hit In 10th Topples Baltimore

Boston (AP) — Dick Gernert lined a one out, bases-loaded pinch single to left field in the 10th inning Thursday for Boston's 4-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Gene Stephens, just inserted to run for Ted Williams at third base, brought home the deciding tally—beating by a stride Gene Woodling's throw to Joe Ginsberg at the plate.

PAIGE CAN PITCH WAY OUT OF TRAFFIC JAM

Miami, Fla. (AP)—LeRoy (Satchel) Paige can pitch himself out of a jam with the Miami Marlins this season.

The Negro baseball star was sentenced to 20 days in jail by Metropolitan Judge Charles H. Snowden on two traffic charges.

Snowden, former University of Miami football player and ardent sports fan, said if Paige "works real hard, he'll come out all right."

The jail sentence was deferred until Oct. 1 when the season is over. Meanwhile, Paige will receive one day off for every game he wins, another day off for every run he scores and still another day off every time he strikes out Luke Easter of the Buffalo Bisons.

Paige was convicted of speeding and having an improper driver's license. In addition to the jail sentence, he was ordered to produce a valid license in place of the outdated one from Missouri which he carried.

Northeast, Hastings Pick For Mid-East Title Today

Six schools, each with at least one top competitor, chase after the Mid-East Conference track and field championship at Nebraska Wesleyan today.

Morning preliminaries start at 10 a.m., field events at

1 p.m. with track finals at 2 p.m.

Lincoln Northeast and Hastings rate as co-favorites to replace Beatrice as champion.

Other entries are Lincoln Southeast, Fairbury, and a new addition this year, Omaha Westside.

Several other top meets are scheduled today, including the Kearney State Invitational, Doane Invitational and the Norfolk Invitational. The Kearney will hold Class C and D today, with A and B going Saturday after rain postponed the big schools Thursday.

The Alliance Invitational, slated today, has been postponed until Saturday.

Three records are definitely endangered in the Mid-East affair, 2 of them by Beatrice's great sophomore Bob Hohn. He has equaled the high hurdles mark of 15.2 and bettered the lows record of 20.9.

Jack Osborne of Hastings has bested the high jump record of 5-11¼. Osborne, along with shot-putter Ken Hinrichs, are the top threats from Hastings.

Northeast hopes for points from Jerry Witherby in the 880 and Paul Heiser in the quarter-mile, and could also picks up firsts from Roger Bailey in the discus and pole vault. Rich Smith may press Osborne in the high jump. Northeast depth in several events should help the Rockets.

Southeast offers a top miler in Paul Clair and a good 440 man in Tom Davies, but will be hurting with the continued absence of sprinter Dick Harr.

Fairbury offers broad jumper Wayne Huss, while Westside is led by all-round performer Steve Dickinson.

Most of the top teams in the state are in action in the 4 big invitational meets this weekend, with powerful Scottsbluff at the Alliance meet along with pole vaulter Merlin Lawrence of the host school.

Lawrence topped 13-¾ last week, but will again have tough competition. Scottsbluff's Gary Ehler reported a 13-3 pole vault in practice this week.

Omaha schools highlight both the Doane and Norfolk meets. Central, North, South and Tech will be at Doane along with some 16 other Class A schools, including Lincoln Pius X and University High. There is also a Class B with about 30 teams entered.

Omaha Benson and Creighton Prep are among the Norfolk entries.

Grand Island is among the favorites in the A class at Kearney, which will have around 80 teams competing in the 4 divisions.

Fairbury Wins Track Triangular

Hebron—Fairbury piled up 80 points to take first place in a triangular track meet here.

Hebron finished second with 49 points and Deshler trailed with 27. Pat Cooper and Bob Gallamore of Fairbury were double winners along with Allen Hissong of Hebron.

The event winners:

100—Pat Cooper, F, :11.3; 220—Jim Killinger, H, :24.7; 440—Allen Hissong, H, :55.2; 880—Art Hansmire, F, 2:12.5; mile—Bill Block, F, 5:09; 60 HH—Bob Gallamore, F, :08.9; 100 LH—Roger Corliss, H, :13.0; 880 relay—Fairbury (Cooper, Alvin Mapel, Dennis Beachler, Wayne Huss), 1:39; mile relay—Fairbury (Ron Mohling, Dave Vondra, Joe Nimmick, Hansmire), 3:53.5; 2-mile relay—Fairbury (Terry Jackow, Les Blobaum, Ed Kykie, Dennis Jones), 9:26.

Shot put—Roger Corliss, H, 45-6; discus—Wayne Huss, F, 118-8; high jump—Bob Gallamore, F, 5-9; broad jump—Pat Cooper, F, 19-7; pole vault—David Dyer, H, 10-8½.

Tennis 'Clown' Expelled

Vienna (AP) — The career of Austria's "tennis clown" as an amateur practically ended with the announcement by the Austrian Tennis Assn. that it had expelled red-haired Fred Huber, 28.

The association said it took this action because "Huber did not take part without any excuse in tournaments to which he was sent on association expenses," and other gross displays of lack of discipline.

LAFB OPENER IS SATURDAY

Lincoln AFB baseball coach Bill Giles selected a tentative starting line-up for the Flyers for the first game of the season against Offutt Saturday and selected Gene Fogarty, star pitcher of last years team, to pitch the opening tilt at Offutt.

Five home games are listed on the Lincoln Air Force Base baseball schedule. Other home games are expected to be added in a short time.

The first home games of the season are with Schilling AFB, Kansas, on May 17 and 18. Concordia College of Seward, Nebraska, invades the base for a single game May 20. The next scheduled home games are with Forbes AFB, Kansas, on June 28 and 29.

On road trips, the Flyers travel to Offutt, on April 26, Forbes on May 3 and 4, Concordia on May 27, Schilling on June 14 and 15, and Ellsworth AFB, S.D., June 21-22.

Moore Signs Bout

San Francisco (AP) — Light heavyweight champ Archie Moore signed Thursday for a May 26 non-title 10 rounder with Charley Norkus, an unranked heavyweight.

Colorado To Host 1959 AAU Track

Boulder, Colo (AP)—The National AAU track and field championships will be held in Boulder in June 1959, University of Colorado track coach Frank Potts said Thursday.

The meet will be held at Colorado Folsom Field.

This will be the second time in five years Boulder has been the scene of the national meet. The 1955 championships were staged here.

The 1959 meet will serve as a preliminary to the Pan-American Games slated later that year in Chicago.

Boulder received 35 votes for the AAU track and field committee which awarded the championships. In other bids for the meet, Eugene, Ore., received 20 votes and the Adirondack Assn. of the AAU 11 votes.

Owens To Lakers?

San Francisco (AP) — R. C. Owens, sensational rookie pass catcher for the San Francisco 49ers, said he has received an offer from the Minneapolis Lakers basketball team and is strongly tempted to give up football.

Dash Mark Equalled

Abilene, Tex. (AP) — Bruce Land, Cisco Junior College, equalled the world's record in the 100-yard dash, making it in 9.3 seconds in a practice meet with McCurry College.

Officials said, however, an 8-mile-an hour crosswind was blowing and the record probably would not be recognized.

Feeders Day Features Reports On Research

...29th Annual Event At North Platte

North Platte, Neb. — Area stockmen gathered here Thursday for the 29th annual spring Feeders Day at the North Platte Experiment Station.

They saw experimental cattle and heard research reports varying from grub control to feeds for fattening cattle.

Among other things they heard were that steers fed steam rolled wheat made approximately the same average daily gains as steers fed rolled corn. In addition, the steers in the test fed corn required more feed per hundred pounds of grain than was required by steers fed the other concentrates used in the trial.

Steers fed corn silage made approximately the same average daily gains as steers fed alfalfa hay and required less carbohydrate concentrate per unit of gain. However, they required more protein supplement!

Calvin Jones, U.S. Department of Agricultural entomologist stationed at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, told of several new chemicals for controlling the destructive cattle grub.

One chemical named "Dowco 109" gave 91 to 97% control when used orally, Jones stated. One application of the same chemical in spray gave 90% control.

Other features of the program included a report on swine research by James Adams, Station superintendent; Bud Nelson, Angus cattle and swine farmer at Curtis; Johnny Matsushima, associate professor of animal husbandry at the University, and Dr. M. L. Baker, professor and assistant dean of the College of Agriculture.

6 Locations Planned For Wildcat Oil Tests

. . . In Scotts Bluff County Area

Scottsbluff, Neb. (AP) — Shell Oil Co. has announced 6 locations for wildcat oil tests in Scotts Bluff County which will be drilled this year.

The program will include 4 tries northwest of Scottsbluff and 2 southwest of Gering. All are planed as "J" sand tests.

The company has put down about a dozen wells in the county so far including an offset to the county's only producing well, the Vessels Strains No. 1 in the Cedar Canyon Field.

None of the tests has been completed as a producer, however.

Oil activity also was on the upswing in Kimball County this week. Thirteen drilling rigs were active in the county and one producer was announced.

R. J. McDowell ran casing on the No. 2-A lightbody in the Baltensperger field. A drill stem test from 6,940 to 6,980 feet recovered 117 feet of mud cut oil.

Two dry holes were reported and 7 new locations announced. Shell Oil Co. plugged its No. 2 Stahla and TCT Corporation plugged the No. 2 Cizek in the Heider Field.

The true old-style Kentucky bourbon

EARLY TIMES

Always smoother because it's slow-distilled

There are less costly ways to make bourbon whiskies—but they'll never give you the smoothness you get in Early Times. The extra care and attention of slow distilling...the patient willingness to take twice as long... this is the old-style way, the smoothing way to make whisky. Next time, ask for Early Times.

Ike Plans Tossed Into Senate Labor Law Debate

Washington (AP) — The administration threw President Eisenhower's labor law proposals into an already boiling Senate debate over union corruption curbs and other restraints.

The move promised a battle running for several days over a wide gamut of proposed labor law changes.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, sought to confine consideration to the single bill before the Senate—a plan to regulate labor welfare funds.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, pushed a series of amendments he described as labor's bill of rights but classed by Johnson as anti-labor. Knowland said he was opposed by a coalition of Democrats and AFL-CIO leaders.

Hanging Fire

After visiting the White House, Secretary of Labor Mitchell announced that since Knowland was pushing his amendments, the administration has decided to offer Eisenhower's proposals as amendments too. They have been hanging fire since January.

Mitchell said the welfare fund control bill, although generally acceptable to the administration, is "by no means enough to give adequate protection to American workers against the corruption and abuses of trust and power which have been disclosed in the labor-management field."

The Labor Secretary spoke of Eisenhower's "earnest desire for the passage of his total legislative program in this area" and said the administration urged quick Senate approval. Johnson objected that there had been no Senate committee hearings on either the Eisenhower or Knowland proposals.

Overtime

The Senate worked overtime on the pending welfare fund control bill. In the first test on it the chamber defeated 59-28 an amendment of Sen. Allott (R-Colo) to knock out the proposed controls on 90% of the benefit plans.

Eisenhower's package plan calls for filing full reports with the government on all union funds as well as welfare funds. Penalties would be provided for fraud or false statements. Violating unions exempt status.

The Eisenhower plan also would restrict picketing and boycots, make union fund embezzlement a federal crime, and broaden state jurisdiction over labor disputes.

Some of the Knowland and Eisenhower proposals are parallel, such as fund reporting and penalty provisions for fraud and a requirement that union officers must be elected by secret ballot.

One Dead, 3 Others Injured In Series Of Omaha Accidents

Omaha (INS)—Three Omaha traffic accidents, 2 involving trains, left one person dead Thursday and 3 others injured, 2 of them seriously.

Latest of the mishaps, which brought severe injury to a utility line crew foreman, and less serious injury to a motorist, caused derailment of 2 Missouri Pacific diesel locomotive units and 3 freight cars.

Nebraska News

It also demolished a semi-trailer truck containing 131 hogs, a truck belonging to the Omaha Public Power District, and a car driven by the injured motorist.

Earlier in the day, 57-year-old Edmund Eadie, of Omaha, was injured when a car he was driving was struck by another Missouri Pacific train at a North Omaha crossing.

Hit Barricade

In the first of the rash of accidents, 47-year-old Mrs. Corrinne Boggess, a cook at Children's Hospital, was fatally injured when her car went out of control and rammed a tree after striking a street barricade.

Richard Noland, 58, an employe of the Omaha Public Power District, was seriously injured and motorist Jesse Bailey, 31, less seriously hurt in the derailment in southwest Omaha.

The mishap occurred when the trailer portion of the stock truck, owned by the Ivan Newman Trucking Company, of York, Neb., and driven by Les Rain, of York, was struck by the southbound freight.

The truck was hurled against Bailey's car, smashing the auto into the ditch.

The impact derailed the locomotive and 3 freight cars. One of the cars toppled onto the OPPD truck in which Noland was sitting.

Rain and the train crew escaped injury.

Bailey was listed in "good" condition and Noland in "serious" condition at a hospital.

INDUSTRIALS LEAD UPSURGE

New York (AP)—Steels, motors and oils were pacemakers Thursday as the stock market surged to another new high for the year in heavy trading.

Big industrial shares came forward to share the limelight with cheaper stocks which were the favorites Wednesday.

Turnover soared to 2,870,000 shares compared with 2,720,000 Wednesday and was the biggest since 2,970,000 were traded Feb. 4.

Pivotal issues stepped ahead on a broad front, gaining fractions to well over a point.

First quarter earnings and dividend reports on two giants, Chrysler and Bethlehem Steel, were anticipated in Wall Street most of the day. With the steel and motor industries hit badly by the recession it has been expected for weeks that the financial statements would make a poor showing compared with a year ago.

Bethlehem declared the usual 60 cents dividend. Earnings of 52 cents a share did not cover the dividend but financial analysts did not expect that it would.

Based on the rise in the Associated Press average, the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange rose an estimated $1,668,000,000.

Market optimism overrode poor first quarter financial reports of various companies. Opinion seemed to be forming that a business recovery was in the cards next fall.

American Stock Exchange prices rose on volume of 740,000 shares compared with 690,000 Wednesday.

Corn, Soybeans Make Advances

Chicago (AP) — Corn and soybean futures reversed their recent downward trend Thursday on the board of trade.

Corn, with advances running to 1¾ cents a bushel, was the best performer but soybeans went up as much as 1⅜ cents. It was the first time this week all these contracts had run to the plus side and traders said at least part of the buying was a fair volume of short-covering, indicating these markets may have been oversold in the declines.

Firmer prices for soybean oil and soybean meal also were strengthening factors.

The new government export subsidy plan for corn was credited in part for some of the demand for futures but other traders said this influence, if any, was slight.

Some of those who doubted any bullish effect of the plan said the grain long ago adjusted itself to the probability. In that advance two or three weeks ago, some corn contracts slowly stretched their gains to around eight cents a bushel over about 10 trading days. The May delivery still is at its highest price since November and some dealers any bullishness of the export plan probably would be to stabilize prices near the higher ranges.

The new export plan provides that, effective May 5, all corn exports except those in trade barter agreements and for emergency use, will be made through commercial dealers from commercial stocks. The dealers will be reimbursed in corn for any losses incurred in meeting foreign competition. A similar plan for wheat was placed in effect sometime ago.

At the close of trading, wheat was ⅜-¾ cent a bushel higher, corn ⅞-1¾ higher, oats ⅜-⅝ higher, rye ¾ lower to 1¼ higher, soybeans ⅞-1⅝ higher, and lard 5 cents a hundred pounds higher to 10 cents lower.

Other grains were steady to mostly firm except May rye, the only loser in the list.

May wheat was up as much as two cents a bushel at one time on short covering. Traders said there is an unusually large open interest in this contract and that it may be expected to shift rather broadly at times in evening up transactions.

A fair volume of export business appeared. Mexico bought 1,120,000 bushels of corn for shipment in May and was expected to buy another 480,000 bushels soon. Finland took 186,000 bushels of spring wheat and Formosa indicated it expected to be in the market soon for 4,200,000 bushels.

St. Bernard Near Death—

Gentle, Fenced Dog Beaten Savagely With Bottles, Club

Somewhere in the midst of Lincolnites walks a monster.

A meek, friendly St. Bernard lies near death in a local pet hospital, the victim of a sadistic beating administered last week by someone not known to the dog's owners.

The dog, Duke, is the pet of 6 years standing of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Perrine of 1621 A. Late last week Mrs. Perrine went to Duke's pen to feed him. She noticed that he limped.

DUKE . . . near death

The wound did not seem serious then, she said, so she did not worry about the matter.

Then Wednesday afternoon upon visiting the pen she found Duke unable to rise and blood stained his white coat just behind his left foreleg.

Examining the pen, Mrs. Perrine found several beer bottles and a club evidently used to beat the confined pet.

"Why?" asked Mrs. Perrine, near tears.

Duke lived in a pen in the Perrine's backyard which is also fenced. Of a breed famous for gentleness, 190-pound Duke neither barked nor bothered anyone, Mrs. Perrine lamented.

Two Fences

Yet someone was ambitious and mean enough to penetrate 2 fences to torment this docile creature.

Humane Society authorities have the case under investigation and police have been notified.

This is the second unhappy incident Perrine's have experienced with their dogs. A German shepherd they owned before Duke was fatally poisoned.

Trial Expected To Clear Rumors On 'Trail Of Notes'

One of many unconfirmed reports concerning the Charles Starkweather murder case—that the 19-year-old mass killer threw notes bragging of his crimes from the car en route to Wyoming where he was captured—is expected to be verified when he goes on trial on 2 murder charges May 5 in Lancaster District Court.

Starkweather and his 14-year-old companion, Caril Fugate, both reportedly wrote notes and threw them from the car during their trip across Nebraska. Several reportedly were recovered and are now in the possession of the County Attorney's office.

Starkweather also reportedly wrote something concerning his crime spree—in which 10 pesons were killed—on the wall of his Gering, Neb., jail cell where he was held overnight when he was being returned to Lincoln. His defense attorneys, T. Clement Gaughan and William F. Matschullat, reportedly have a copy of this message but have declined to reveal what it said.

Caril's Part

Another detail expected to come out at the trial includes to just what extent Caril Fugate was involved in the murders. She has claimed she was Starkweather's hostage throughout the crime spree but he says she was his willing accomplice.

Gaughan and Matschullat are scheduled to go to Kansas City, Mo., Friday to consult with the 2 doctors there who have examined Starkweather. They said they paln to return late Friday night.

Next steps in the defense strategy are expected to be a request to the District Court for a list of the prospective jurors summoned to appear for the May jury term and also the entering of a plea of "innocent by reason of insanity" for Starkweather. The attorneys want the list of 200 prospective jurors to begin the task of eliminating any which might have some connection with the case or parties involved.

Insanity Plea Seen

Thus when the jurors appear May 5 time would be saved in the excusing of some jurors. There has been considerable speculation all along that Starkweather's defense would be based on insanity, although he himself reportedly has been reluctant to agree to being defended on such a basis. But nevertheless, his attorneys next week are expected to enter the innocent by reason of insanity plea in addition to the innocent plea which has already been entered.

Both Starkweather and Caril are specifically charged with first degree murder and murder while in the perpetration of a robbery in the death of Robert Jensen, 17, of Bennet Jan. 27.

Caril also has pleaded innocent and her case is the subject of a complicated legal battle over whether she should be tried in District Court—where she could possibly receive the death penalty if convicted—or in Juvenile Court, where maximum punishment would be commitment until she is 21. The State Supreme Court is expected to decide the matter in June.

North Platte Airport Gets $98,000Grant

The State Aeronautics Commission has granted $98,000 in federal and state funds for North Platte Airport improvement in 1959.

The city of North Platte will provide $62,000 to bring the total of airport improvement funds to $160. The federal government will provide $80,000; and the state will provide $18,000.

A North Platte delegation, led by Mayor J. L. Keenan, appeared before the Commission. It has requested a total of $160,000, of which $40,150 would have come from state funds.

Twins, Both 'Otha', Give Sergeant Fits

Fort Chaffee, Ark. (INS)—It's bad enough to have identical twins in an Army training unit, but when their names are nearly identical the problems multiply.

M. Sgt. Henry Casper, at Fort Chaffee, has just such a pair in their 3rd week of basic training—Otha Lecoy Wallace and Otha Lenoy Wallace, 23, of Dardanelle, Ark.

Casper found a temporary solution in calling each by his last name and the last 4 digits of his serial number.

HMMM!

Tokyo (AP)— Communist North Korea announced in a radio broadcast a factory capable of producing more than 10 million yards of rope annually is going up at Sariwon, Whanghai Province.

Drive Starts For Juvenile Court Setup

The Nebraska Committee for the Juvenile Court Enabling Act, scheduled to appear on the November ballot, started the ball rolling Thursday as plans were made for an upcoming "voter-education" drive.

Mrs. E. C. Torgerson of Omaha chairman of the committee, said that "approximately 100 workers" will campaign for adoption of the proposal that would establish juvenile courts on the same level as the district court, but with separate jurisdiction.

Mrs. Torgerson said the establishment of juvenile courts would enable judges familiar with juvenile proceedings to deal with these cases.

The committee, composed of about 40-state-wide sponsors and executive committee members, was organized to promote voter passage of LB 124, passed by the legislature in 1957—the Juvenile Court Enabling Act.

Another committee on youth problems, the Nebraska Youth Committee, headed by the Rev. Adrian Edgar of McCook, met Thursday to prepare for the White House Conference on youth in 1960.

The Rev. Mr. Edgar said the group will plan the participation of a number of Nebraska organizations in the national conference.

Hospital To Get New Fire System

A new $2,700 fire detection system for Lincoln General Hospital has been approved by the Board of Trustees. The system will be installed in the near future, hospital officials said.

The Board also approved a recommendation to increase the fire insurance on the hospital and the nurses' home. The insurance on the hospital will be increased from $1,330,000 to $1,510,000; while the nurses' home insurance will be raised from $261,000 to $295,000.

Administrator Herb Anderson reported on the progress of the laboratory which is being remodeled, and told about the work of the hospital's infection control center.

Ansley FFA Chapter Wins Corn Award

Ansley, Neb. (AP) — The Ansley Future Farmers of America chapter has been named recipient of the top award in the state FFA safe corn harvest program.

The Custer County group bested 29 other FFA chapters in a promotional campaign covering the 1957 corn harvest season.

Close contenders for the state honor were chapters at Holdrege and Imperial.

5 Children Die

Maubeuge, France (AP)—Five children were killed by the explosion of a shell, apparently an overlooked relic from World War II, that they found in a field behind their home.

Hardy: Upturn '58 Business Volume Seen

Philip S. Hardy, president of Hardy Furniture Co., told stockholders that 1957 sales were satisfactory and only slightly below those of 1956.

Presiding at the 87th annual stockholders meeting, Hardy said that more business volume was expected this spring despite a slow start early in the year. The reason, he said, was higher incomes in 1958 in Lincoln and Nebraska.

Hardy was re-elected president, and William C. Kinsey, vice president and general manager, and Ardon Peterson, secretary and treasurer, were also renamed.

New directors include E. L. Barney, general sales manager, and Carl Sanden, legal counsel to the firm for many years. Directors M. M. Shock and O. J. Bilhorne were re-elected.

10 ELECTED TO PHI KAPPA PHI

Eight senior students of Wesleyan University and 2 alumni, Dr. Richard Gentry of San Bernardino, Calif., and Dr. Robert Gentry of Gering, have been elected to Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary fraternity.

New student members of the group are Eugene Brown of Auburn, Patricia Eliason of Swedeburg, Mrs. Eleanore Ficke of Sterling, Roger Semin of Utica, and Mrs. Frances Forrest, Mrs. Grace Monson, Mrs. Edith Murphree and Mrs. Phyllis Spahn, all of Lincoln.

A FLYING START
On A New Sales Career

The rewards are great in the intangible sales field. There's security in renewals that hit 88% each year. But you've never switched because of that "starvation" first year.

Here that starvation first year is out. After a "salary-supported" six weeks training course, you will assume an established renewal account which will provide you with an income equivalent to more than a year's production. Add to that your income from your own sales efforts and you've got a whooping good salary.

Your job will be to sell non-competitive Motor Club memberships and low-cost auto insurance . . . to pile ntw business income on top of your renewal income. This guarantees a rapidly rising income for you.

You will call only on prospects recommended by our present members; you'll work by appointment only. You'll have a sales supervisor to work with you and help in every way possible. Incentive bonus will quic Incentive bonus will quickly push your earnings up to and beyond the figure you've always wanted.

Now what's your investment to attain this valuable established income? You must have previous business experience, preferably in the sales field. You must be married and own a car. Lastly, you must come in our office tomorrow, April 26-28, for the first interview to determine whether you're the man we're seeking for an established Lincoln account. If you can't make it tomorrow, call or write,

Reactivated Human Relations Group Plans Housing, Jobs Study

By Virgil Falloon

Lincoln's Council on Human Relations was reactivated Thursday and agreed to make a fact-finding study on housing and employment for Negroes in the city.

Members told Mayor Bennett Martin that the advisory group would begin active service within the next two weeks and schedule regular meetings.

Activation of the council was urged following the apparent arson-fire of a Negro-occupied home at 4210 No. 60th in the all-white Havelock suburb.

Current council members, who indicated they would continue to serve, were Dr. Steven N. Watkins, chairman; Charles Stuart, Hyman Rosenberg, Wyatt Williams, Lucille Ledwith, Mrs. M. C. Leonard. The Rev. C. Vin White, a present member, was absent from the session.

The council was created in 1952 by former Mayor Victor Anderson, but has been inactive in recent years.

To Be Enlarged

The group indicated that its membership should be enlarged. Mayor Martin said he would appoint selected representatives from the Lincoln Air Force Base, Lincoln Council of Churches, Chamber of Commerce, and the Negro ministers group.

Martin promised the council would have the "full cooperation of all city departments in their work on human relations."

"This committee has indicated its willingness to take the necessary steps forward in this field," Martin said. "their work will be one of the finest services that any citizen's group can render the people of Lincoln as well as city officials."

Dr. Watkins said the function of the committee would be to "study housing and employment for Negroes and other minority groups."

'Cali In Persons'

He said the committee "would call in persons, representative of various groups, to see what has been done in the past and what can be done in the future."

Three Negro ministers appeared before the advisory group and spoke on discrimination problems within the city.

They were the Rev. G. L. Collins of Mt. Zion Baptist, 1205 F; the Rev. L. R. Hayes, Quinn Chapel, 9th and C; and the Rev. C. A. Lynes, Allen Chapel, 22nd and Q.

"Our people are just looking for civil rights and the opportunity to place a representative in strategic places, such as the school board and other community and civic offices," the Rev. Mr. Hayes said. "We're just asking that doors be opened and our people employed according to qualifications, not the color of a person's skin."

He said several Negro teachers have unsuccessfully applied for teaching positions in the public schools. "There's only one Negro employed (policeman) in city government."

Housing 'Pressing'

All three ministers said housing is "the most pressing problem" facing the Negro. "It's very critical and very deplorable," one said.

The Rev. Mr. Haynes, who said he worked in various parts of the United States, said that "conditions in Lincoln are better than in the South and in California. But there is definite room for improvement."

The council asked the ministers to make a survey list of living conditions of Negro families, rent being paid, ability to finance better housing.

"Proper housing for minority groups would be the biggest single step that Lincoln could take in human relations at this time," Mayor Martin said.

Law Proposal Would Protect Appellants

The Nebraska Bar Association's Judicial Council is working on a proposed change in Nebraska laws which would protect litigants from a loss of appeal to a higher court because of failure to obtain a bill of exception.

The Council, holding its first meeting of the year Thursday, discussed various aspects of the proposed changes in the statute to bring it "more up to date," according to Supreme Court Justice E. F. Carter, Council chairman.

Included in their discussion, he said, was the possibility that it might be made the duty of court officers to get the bill of exception (transcript of evidence from the lower court) for the litigant who appeals to a higher court.

At its 1958 organizational meeting Thursday, the Council re-elected Judge Carter chairman for an 8th term. Arthur C. Sidner of Fremont was named vice chairman.

Other members of the Council present at the meeting included: Lancaster County Judge Herbert Ronin; Revisor of Statutes Walter D. James; George H. Turner, cleark of the Supreme Court; Sen. Ray Simmons of Fremont, representing Sen. Don McGinley of Ogallala who is chairman of the Legislature's Judiciary Committee; Flavel Wright of Lincoln; David Dow of the University of Nebraska; Robert H. Beatty of North Platte; Judge Lyle E. Jackson of Neligh; Charles F. Adams of Aurora; Judge Fay H. Pollock of Stanton, and Lester R. Stiner of Hastings.
